Welcome to St. George's!

Whether you are worshiping online or in person, we are glad you are here.

Connect with Us

During this time of staying apart, we are finding new ways to connect. If you'd like to find out more about St. George's, please fill out an online Newcomer Card on our website at: bit.ly/stgnewcomer.

To stay up-to-date on the latest news and events, sign up for our weekly e-newsletter, The St. Georgian: bit.ly/stgnews.

Request Prayer

We share in each other's joys and concerns. Send us your prayer requests at: bit.ly/stgprayer.

Giving

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Your generous gifts help fund our ministries and serve the community. Thank you. You can make a one-time or recurring gift electronically or text to give (send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133). You can also mail a check to the church office. For assistance, contact Business Manager Ben Hicks.

Estimate of Giving for 2021

We encourage every one of our 550+ church households to make a generous estimate as a practice of faith in gratitude to God for many blessings and in support of God's work at St. George's. These estimates also help St. George's plan a budget for the coming year. It is not too late.

Thank you to our anonymous donor and to everyone who has made a new estimate of giving for 2021 or increased their estimate in response to the $25,000 match challenge. We have met the match! Thanks be to God for such generosity, a reflection of God's abundant grace.

Pray about where God would have you be in your giving and let us know. You can complete and Estimate of Giving online here. To increase one you've already submitted, please contact our business manager, Ben Hicks.

Greeting and Welcome

Prelude

Hymn 411: "O bless the Lord, my soul"

St. Thomas

1 O bless the Lord, my soul!
His grace to thee proclaim!
And all that is within me join to bless his holy Name!

4 He pardons all thy sins, prolongs thy feeble breath;
he healeth thine infirmities and ransoms thee from death.

2 O bless the Lord, my soul!
His mercies bear in mind!
Forget not all his benefits!
The Lord to thee is kind.

5 He clothes thee with his love, upholds thee with his truth;
and like the eagle he renews the vigor of thy youth.

3 He will not always chide;
he will with patience wait;
his wrath is ever slow to rise and ready to abate.

6 Then bless his holy Name, whose grace hath made thee whole,
whose loving-kindness crowns thy days:
O bless the Lord, my soul!

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant: Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People: Glory to God, for ever and ever.

Celebrant: Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord your God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these."

Mark 12:29-31

The Confession

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All: God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Song of Praise: 122 (St. 1): "Alleluia, song of gladness" Urbs Beata Jerusalem

Alleluia, song of gladness, voice of joy that cannot die;
alleluia is the anthem
ever raised by choirs on high;
in the house of God abiding thus they sing eternally.

The Word of God

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

The Celebrant says the Collect (Prayer) of the Day

BCP 216

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Isaiah 40:21 - 31

Common English Bible translation (CEB)

Don't you know? Haven't you heard? Wasn't it announced to you from the beginning? Haven't you understood since the earth was founded? God inhabits the earth's horizon—its inhabitants are like locusts—stretches out the skies like a curtain and spreads it out like a tent for dwelling. God makes dignitaries useless and the earth's judges into nothing. Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely is their shoot rooted in the earth when God breathes on them, and they dry up; the windstorm carries them off like straw. So to whom will you compare me, and who is my equal? says the holy one. Look up at the sky and consider: Who created these? The one who brings out their attendants one by one, summoning each of them by name. Because of God's great strength and mighty power, not one is missing. Why do you say, Jacob, and declare, Israel, "My way is hidden from the Lord, my God ignores my predicament"? Don't you know? Haven't you heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the creator of the ends of the earth. He doesn't grow tired or weary. His understanding is beyond human reach, giving power to the tired and reviving the exhausted. Youths will become tired and weary, young men will certainly stumble; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength; they will fly up on wings like eagles; they will run and not be tired; they will walk and not be weary.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Alleluia: "Arise, shine, for your light has come"

Arise shine

Refrain only, Sung twice

Arise, shine, for your light has come,
his glory is upon you.

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Mark 1:29 - 39

People: Glory to you, O Christ.

Common English Bible translation (CEB)

After leaving the synagogue, Jesus, James, and John went home with Simon and Andrew. Simon's mother-in-law was in bed, sick with a fever, and they told Jesus about her at once. He went to her, took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she served them. That evening, at sunset, people brought to Jesus those who were sick or demon-possessed. The whole town gathered near the door. He healed many who were sick with all kinds of diseases, and he threw out many demons. But he didn't let the demons speak, because they recognized him. Early in the morning, well before sunrise, Jesus rose and went to a deserted place where he could be alone in prayer. Simon and those with him tracked him down. When they found him, they told him, "Everyone's looking for you!" He replied, "Let's head in the other direction, to the nearby villages, so that I can preach there too. That's why I've come." He traveled throughout Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and throwing out demons.

Deacon or Priest: The Gospel of our Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

The Homily

The Rev. David P. Casey, O.P.

The Nicene Creed

BCP 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People Form IV

BCP 388

Leader: Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. Silence

Leader: God, in your mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. Silence

Leader: God, in your mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. Silence

Leader: God, in your mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. Silence

Leader: God, in your mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. Silence

Leader: God, in your mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom. Silence

Leader: God, in your mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader: We offer our prayers of thanksgiving and concern for ourselves and others, aloud or in the quiet room of our hearts. The leader pauses for 10 seconds as prayers are offered.

Leader: God, in your mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant concludes:

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace with a wave or bow.

Announcements

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. We invite you to share your gifts in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. You may place your gift in the offering plate. You can also give online (bit.ly/stggive) or text to give (send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133).

Hymn 529: "In Christ there is no East or West"

McKee

1 In Christ there is no East or West, in him no South or North,
but one great fellowship of love
throughout the whole wide earth.

3 In Christ now meet both East and West,
in him meet South and North,
all Christly souls are one in him,
throughout the whole wide earth.

2 Join hands, disciples of the faith, whate'er your race may be!
Who serves my Father as his child is surely kin to me.

Celebrant: Let us now join in the prayer that Jesus taught us.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer for the Power of the Spirit Among the People of God

God of all power and love, we give thanks for your unfailing presence and the hope you provide in times of uncertainty and loss. Send your Holy Spirit to enkindle in us your holy fire. Revive us to live as Christ's body in the world: a people who pray, worship, learn, break bread, share life, heal neighbors, bear good news, seek justice, rest and grow in the Spirit. Wherever and however we gather, unite us in common prayer and send us in common mission, that we and the whole creation might be restored and renewed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you, always. Amen.

The Dismissal

The congregation responds Thanks be to God!

Postlude

Dear Friend,

For 73 days this year, Virginians sheltered in place under the Governor's "stay at home" order. But the reality for almost 200 neighbors within the Micah community was that they had no shelter in which to place.

Through the love of the churches, Micah committed to remaining a lighthouse in the storm – to securing emergency, socially-distanced motel rooms for our vulnerable neighbors. The doors of Micah Hospitality Center stayed open for showers, clean clothes, and other basic provisions. Thousands of hot meals were delivered.

Transitions into permanent housing (51 and counting) were expedited. And even a pandemic couldn't stop the creative ways Micah helped our neighbors increase their income. Battle buddies showed up, distributing cleaning supplies, masks, and hand sanitizers. The churches of Fredericksburg showed up, even if that meant gathering in a parking lot six feet apart.

Our prayer remains, if only for a season, that we get everyone off the street and no one has to return to the street. That all of our neighbors continue to experience the security and stability of shelter, and eventually a permanent home. That they don't just survive. That they thrive.

The future remains unknown, and in many ways, the challenges are only just beginning.

Here are some ways you can make an impact:

$15 provides a night of winter shelter for one person

$25 buys a tent or sleeping bag

$30 keeps someone in housing for a day

$45 keeps someone in a socially distanced shelter bed for a night

$100 buys a night of respite care for a person recovering from a hospital visit

$200 a day sparks the spiritual walk of new disciples

$350 a day provides basic needs of people living on the street

$900 covers the average rental deposit

$1500 bridges someone to work

$5,000 a month supports the missional and spiritual community that is forming among our neighbors

Thank you for loving your neighbor!

Episco 101

This course is designed for adults who are new to St. George's or the Episcopal church and for those interested in baptism, confirmation, or being received into the church from another denomination. Everyone is welcome! We will meet online every Sunday in Lent from 11 am - 12:30 pm, beginning Feb 21. Contact Jan Meredith to register.

Parish Prayer Partners: a new season February 17-April 25

At the annual parish meeting, our rector Joe called the parish to strengthen our net of relationships and invited us all to consider becoming prayer partners as a Lent and Easter practice. We will assign someone for whom you will pray. Meanwhile, someone else will be praying for you. You can participate as an individual or with others in your household. The identity of the partners remains secret until a revealing event shortly after the season ends. Each week you will receive an email with encouragement and ways to pray. To sign up, contact Jan Meredith by February 12.

Lenten Weekend - February 27 - 28 The Power of Storytelling via Zoom

Explore the power of storytelling to heal, unpack our identities, nurture our faith and so much more with Brothers Luke Ditewig and Lucas Hall of the Society of St. John the Evangelist (SSJE). We will have the opportunity to imaginatively immerse ourselves in the stories of scripture, in the story of this monastic order, our story as a community celebrating its 300th anniversary, and our individual stories with sessions on Saturday morning and afternoon. The weekend will include a panel discussion on Sunday afternoon. Led by our Rector Joe, local history John Hennessy, Rev. Oshin Jennings of No Barriers Zen, and Brothers Luke and Lucas will examine St. George's story in the context of our community, both historically, currently, and with an eye towards the future. View the agenda and register on our website here.

Newcomer Welcome

We invite all who are newcomers to St. George's to a special welcome via Zoom on Sunday, February 14 at 5 pm. Come and ask questions, meet a few people - including our rector, Rev. Joe Hensley - and most of all, so that we can get to know you better! www.zoom.us/join or call 929.205.6099, Meeting ID: 872 1544 1049; Passcode: 210987

Ash Wednesday and Lent

The holy season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 17. These six weeks are a time to grow in faith and prepare for Easter renewal. Next Sunday, February 14, we will distribute from the church Lent activity bags with variety of resources for households of all ages including ashes (watch for details this week by email and in the St. Georgian). We will livestream an Ash Wednesday service from the church at noon via YouTube. You may impose ashes on yourself or members of your household, using ashes provided by St. George's, or you can make your own. A full-description of ways to observe the season will also be shared this week.

Today's Altar Arrangement:

Is given to the glory of God, and in loving memory of Lois and Marion Rambo by Tom and Jan Meredith.

Prayer Chain at St. George's

Join our new St. George's prayer chain! Everyone is invited to request prayers from the prayer chain for immediate or ongoing concerns. Prayer chain participants will receive an email with requests for prayer. You can pray for that person in whatever way you feel called. No responses to the recipient are required. To join the prayer chain, email Ann Tebbutt who will add you to the list of those who are praying (you are also welcome to leave the prayer chain at any point). To submit a prayer for the prayer chain, also email Ann Tebbutt. You can include as little or as much information as you feel comfortable.

Daughters of the King at St. George's

The Daughters of the King (DoK) are a community of women and girls, lay and ordained, joined together by a rule of life, which involves a commitment to service and prayer. They have an exciting year planned. The parish is invited to join the DoK for: a study of Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's new book "Love is the Way"; a day long Lenten retreat (date and location tbd) as well as to participate in creating a book composed of a collection of prayers, photography, art, short stories, reflections, inspirational quotes that will be published and available in Advent 2021. For more information, please contact Candace Allshouse (dominiceltic@aol.com).

St. George's Prayer List

"Prayer is powerful"
James 5:16
