The Sixteenth Sunday
After Pentecost
September 20, 2020 at 9 am from the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and Enriching Our Worship, supplemental liturgical materials approved by the Episcopal Church.

During the prelude, we invite you to prepare for worship by observing silence or taking time for private prayer.

Prelude: Sonata for Clarinet and Piano

Paul Hindemith

Hymn WLP 797: "It's me, it's me, it's me, O Lord"

Spiritual

Refrain:

It's me, it's me, O Lord,

Standin' in the need of prayer; (Repeat)

1 Not my brother, not my sister,

but it's me, O Lord,

standin' in the need of prayer,

not my brother, not my sister,

but it's me, O Lord,

standin' in the need of prayer. (Refrain)

2 Not the preacher, not the deacon,

but it's me, O Lord,

standin' in the need of prayer,

not the preacher, not the deacon,

but it's me, O Lord,

standin' in the need of prayer. (Refrain)

3 Not my father, not my mother,

but it's me, O Lord,

standin' in the need of prayer,

not my father, not my mother,

but it's me, O Lord,

standin' in the need of prayer. (Refrain)

4 Not the stranger, not my neighbor,

but it's me, O Lord,

standin' in the need of prayer,

not the stranger, not my neighbor,

but it's me, O Lord,

standin' in the need of prayer. (Refrain)

Celebrant: Blessed be the one, holy and living God.

People: Glory to God for ever and ever.

Celebrant: Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord your God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these."

Mark 12:29-31

The Confession

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All: God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Song of Praise: Gloria

John H. Vreeland

Gloria, Gloria, Glory in the highest! (2 times)

To God be glory forever. (2 times)

Gloria, Gloria, Glory in the highest! (2 times)

Alleluia, Amen, Alleluia, Amen. (4 times)

The Word of God

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

The Celebrant says the Collect (Prayer) of the Day

BCP 234

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Jonah 3:10 - 4:11

Common English Bible translation (CEB)

God saw what they were doing—that they had ceased their evil behavior. So God stopped planning to destroy them, and he didn't do it. But Jonah thought this was utterly wrong, and he became angry. He prayed to the Lord, "Come on, Lord! Wasn't this precisely my point when I was back in my own land? This is why I fled to Tarshish earlier! I know that you are a merciful and compassionate God, very patient, full of faithful love, and willing not to destroy. At this point, Lord, you may as well take my life from me, because it would be better for me to die than to live." The Lord responded, "Is your anger a good thing?" But Jonah went out from the city and sat down east of the city. There he made himself a hut and sat under it, in the shade, to see what would happen to the city. Then the Lord God provided a shrub, and it grew up over Jonah, providing shade for his head and saving him from his misery. Jonah was very happy about the shrub. But God provided a worm the next day at dawn, and it attacked the shrub so that it died. Then as the sun rose God provided a dry east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he became faint. He begged that he might die, saying, "It's better for me to die than to live." God said to Jonah, "Is your anger about the shrub a good thing?" Jonah said, "Yes, my anger is good—even to the point of death!" But the Lord said, "You 'pitied' the shrub, for which you didn't work and which you didn't raise; it grew in a night and perished in a night. Yet for my part, can't I pity Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than one hundred twenty thousand people who can't tell their right hand from their left, and also many animals?"

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Alleluia

John Vreeland

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! (2 times)

The Word of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul.

The precepts of the Lord rejoice the heart and bring light to the eyes.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! (2 times)

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew 20:1 - 16

People: Glory to you, O Christ.

Common English Bible translation (CEB)

"The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. After he agreed with the workers to pay them a denarion, he sent them into his vineyard. "Then he went out around nine in the morning and saw others standing around the marketplace doing nothing. He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I'll pay you whatever is right.' And they went. "Again around noon and then at three in the afternoon, he did the same thing. Around five in the afternoon he went and found others standing around, and he said to them, 'Why are you just standing around here doing nothing all day long?' "Because nobody has hired us,' they replied. "He responded, 'You also go into the vineyard.' "When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the workers and give them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and moving on finally to the first.' When those who were hired at five in the afternoon came, each one received a denarion. Now when those hired first came, they thought they would receive more. But each of them also received a denarion. When they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, 'These who were hired last worked one hour, and they received the same pay as we did even though we had to work the whole day in the hot sun.' "But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I did you no wrong. Didn't I agree to pay you a denarion? Take what belongs to you and go. I want to give to this one who was hired last the same as I give to you. Don't I have the right to do what I want with what belongs to me? Or are you resentful because I'm generous?' So those who are last will be first. And those who are first will be last."

Deacon or Priest: The Gospel of our Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

The Homily

The Rev. Will Dickinson

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

The Leader and People pray responsively

Leader: Let us pray to our God, the giver of life saying or signing, "Hear our prayer."

Creator of earth, sea, and sky, kindle the fire of your Spirit within us that we may be bold to heal and defend the earth around us, and pour your blessing upon the people and organizations working everywhere for the good of the planet. Giver of life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Breath of life, receive our thanks for the beauty of our local habitat and all its inhabitants, and lend us the wisdom and will to conserve them. Giver of life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Light and source of life, heal and redeem the wounds of your creation, and visit the places and people who suffer from our indifference, neglect, and greed. Giver of life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Lover of all you have made, we thank you for the wondrous diversity of your creatures, and we pray for their well-being. Wise Creator whose works are full of mystery, give us wonder and appreciation for your creatures with whom we find ourselves in conflict. Giver of life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Giver of all good gifts, awaken us daily to our dependence upon your generosity, and make us always thankful for the abundance of your blessings.
Giver of life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Joy of human hearts, heal our human communities, especially those where your word is not heard, or where neglect, violence, greed, and warfare increase the suffering and need of people and other creatures. Giver of life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Comforter of all the earth, sustain the people of this congregation who desire or need your presence and help, especially those whom we name now (People offer their prayers). Giver of life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Rock and refuge of all your creatures, receive into everlasting mercy all those who have died. Giver of life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Celebrant: O God hear the prayers of your people. Then empower us by your Spirit to work, pray, and give for the spread of the Good News of your reign of peace, following the example of our savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace with a wave or bow.

Announcements

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. We invite you to share your gifts in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. You may place your gift in the offering plate. You can also give online (bit.ly/stggive) or text to give (send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133).

Hymn 411: "O bless the Lord, my soul"

St. Thomas (Williams)

1 O bless the Lord, my soul!
His grace to thee proclaim!
And all that is within me join to bless his holy Name!

4 He pardons all thy sins,
prolongs thy feeble breath;
he healeth thine infirmities
and ransoms thee from death.

2 O bless the Lord, my soul!
His mercies bear in mind!
Forget not all his benefits!
The Lord to thee is kind.

5 He clothes thee with his love,
upholds thee with his truth;
and like the eagle he renews
the vigor of thy youth.

3 He will not always chide;
he will with patience wait;
his wrath is ever slow to rise and ready to abate.

6 Then bless his holy Name,
whose grace hath made thee whole, whose loving-kindness crowns thy days:
O bless the Lord, my soul!

Celebrant: Let us now join in the prayer that Jesus taught us.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer for the Power of the Spirit Among the People of God

God of all power and love, we give thanks for your unfailing presence and the hope you provide in times of uncertainty and loss. Send your Holy Spirit to enkindle in us your holy fire. Revive us to live as Christ's body in the world: a people who pray, worship, learn, break bread, share life, heal neighbors, bear good news, seek justice, rest and grow in the Spirit. Wherever and however we gather, unite us in common prayer and send us in common mission, that we and the whole creation might be restored and renewed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

May the blessing of the God of Abraham and Sarah, and of Jesus Christ born of our sister Mary, and of the Holy Spirit, who broods over the world as a mother over her children, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

The Dismissal

The congregation responds

Thanks be to God!

Weekly Formation

Our new worship schedule begins today! Visit our website for more information.

Parish Meeting Today at 10 am on Zoom

Please plan to join us for an important meeting with updates and celebrations, from worship to finances, from learning to caring for our neighbors. How are we doing and where are we headed in the coming season?

Praying for Health Care Workers and First Responders

Please contact the office if you are a health care worker or first responder or if you are related to one. We would like to include names in a special section of our parish prayer list during this pandemic crisis.

Resources and Assistance

St. George's has information and funds to help in a time of need. Please contact the church office or clergy for more information.

300th Anniversary Celebrations

Make plans to join us on November 1 for a virtual panel discussion with Rev. Joe Hensley, Rev. Jim Dannals, Rev. Charles Sydnor, and Ann (Faulkner) Ridgway via Zoom. Rev. Ed Jones will moderate the discussion. Stay tuned for more information!

Staying Connected

We are planning several new ways to connect this Fall - both socially distanced and virtually. If you'd like to hear the latest, be sure you are signed up for our weekly e-newsletter, the St. Georgian. To sign-up, contact the church office or visit: bit.ly/stgenews.

Blessing of the Animals: October 4

On Sunday, October 4 from 4 - 6 pm at Hurkamp Park, St. George's clergy will offer "walk-by" blessings and greetings at a safe distance in honor of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. Bring your four-legged, furry, feathered, friends!

Small Group Fellowship

Reconciliation Book Group 1 (Tuesday Evenings)

On Tuesday, October 20 at 7:30 pm, the Reconciliation Book Group 1 has a Zoom discussion on An Indigenous Peoples History of the United States by Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz, facilitated by Katie Green. We are reading and learning with the understanding that reconciliation can only occur with shared truths. We welcome all to read and participate with an open mind and heart. Contact Marcia Russell (marcia@crussellphoto.com), Anne Beals (oakleyfrm@gmail.com), or Janice Brunson (jbrunson@verison.net) if you are not already on our email list and wish to participate.

Racial Reconciliation Book Club 2 (Tuesday Afternoons)

St. George's second Racial Reconciliation Book Club's next meeting is September 22 at 2 pm. The book selection is The Fire Next Time by James Baldwin. Contact Pam Jewett-Bullock (topjjb@aol.com) or Anne Beals (oakleyfrm@gmail.com) for information about the group.

Tuesday Book Group Resumes

The St. George's Book Group has started their next book, The Seven Storey Mountain by Thomas Merton. They meet Tuesdays at 7:15 pm. For Zoom info, please contact: Norah Hooper, nshooper@gmail.com, or Nanette Lofaro, nanettel48@aol.com. New-comers welcome!

Children's Formation

For our children in Pre-K – 5th Grade, we will offer online formation from September 27 through Christmas. In lieu of in-person formation, St. George's will be offering pre-recorded formational videos each week that will invite children to worship and explore our traditions. We will also incorporate activities for different age levels, and hope to provide opportunities for in-person gathering this Fall. For more information please contact Hecti Musa (hector.musa@stgeorgesepiscopal.net)

Youth Formation and Youth Group

Starting September 27 and continuing through Christmas, in lieu of our normal in-person gathering at church, St. George's will be inviting youth grades 6 - 12 into a deeper discussion on topics that inform our faith. Grades 6 - 8 will meet online on Sundays from 5 - 6 pm and grades 9 - 12 from 6 - 7 pm. The first 6-week conversation will explore working for justice for all in our world. The second 6-weeks will focus on environmental stewardship and caring for God's creation. We also plan to offer opportunities for in-person, distanced gatherings throughout the Fall. For more information please contact Hecti Musa (hector.musa@stgeorgesepiscopal.net)
