The Word of God

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Genesis 9:8 - 17

Common English Bible translation (CEB)

God said to Noah and to his sons with him, "I am now setting up my covenant with you, with your descendants, and with every living being with you—with the birds, with the large animals, and with all the animals of the earth, leaving the ark with you. I will set up my covenant with you so that never again will all life be cut off by floodwaters. There will never again be a flood to destroy the earth." God said, "This is the symbol of the covenant that I am drawing up between me and you and every living thing with you, on behalf of every future generation. I have placed my bow in the clouds; it will be the symbol of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, I will remember the covenant between me and you and every living being among all the creatures. Floodwaters will never again destroy all creatures. The bow will be in the clouds, and upon seeing it I will remember the enduring covenant between God and every living being of all the earth's creatures." God said to Noah, "This is the symbol of the covenant that I have set up between me and all creatures on earth."

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn: "Now quit your care (St. 1)"

Quitezz, Pasteurs

Now quit your care and anxious fear and worry;
for schemes are vain and fretting brings no gain.
Lent calls to prayer, to trust and dedication;
God brings new beauty nigh;
reply, reply, reply with love to love most high;
reply, reply, reply with love to love most high.

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Mark 1:9 - 15

People: Glory to you, O Christ.

Common English Bible translation (CEB)

About that time, Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and John baptized him in the Jordan River. While he was coming up out of the water, Jesus saw heaven splitting open and the Spirit, like a dove, coming down on him. And there was a voice from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I dearly love; in you I find happiness." At once the Spirit forced Jesus out into the wilderness. He was in the wilderness for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among the wild animals, and the angels took care of him. After John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee announcing God's good news, saying, "Now is the time! Here comes God's kingdom! Change your hearts and lives, and trust this good news!"

Deacon or Priest: The Gospel of our Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

The Homily

The Rev. Joseph H. Hensley, Jr.

The Nicene Creed

BCP 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace with a wave or bow.

Announcements

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. We invite you to share your gifts in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. You may place your gift in the offering plate. You can also give online (bit.ly/stggive) or text to give (send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133).

Hymn 147: "Now, let us all with one accord"

Bourbon

1 Now let us all with one accord,
in company with ages past,
keep vigilant with our heavenly Lord
his temptation and his fast.

4 Remember, Lord, though frail we be,
in your on image were we made;
help us, lest in anxiety,
we cause your Name to be betrayed.

2 The covenant, so long revealed
to those of faith in former time,
Christ by his own example sealed,
the Lord of Love, in love sublime.

5 Therefore, we pray you, Lord, forgive;
so when our wanderings here shall cease,
we may with you for ever live,
in love and unity and peace.

3 Your love, O Lord, our sinful race
has not returned, but falsified;
author of mercy, turn your face
and grant repentance for our pride.

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for the Power of the Spirit Among the People of God

God of all power and love, we give thanks for your unfailing presence and the hope you provide in times of uncertainty and loss. Send your Holy Spirit to enkindle in us your holy fire. Revive us to live as Christ's body in the world: a people who pray, worship, learn, break bread, share life, heal neighbors, bear good news, seek justice, rest and grow in the Spirit. Wherever and however we gather, unite us in common prayer and send us in common mission, that we and the whole creation might be restored and renewed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Solemn Prayer in place of the blessing during Lent

Celebrant: In body or in spirit, let us bow down before Almighty God.
kneel as able

Grant, Almighty God, that your people may recognize their weakness and put their whole trust in your strength, so that they may rejoice for ever in the protection of your loving providence; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Dismissal

The congregation responds Thanks be to God!

Postlude

*A message from our partners at Micah Ecumenical Ministries
(St. George's is one of the nine member congregations)*

Dear Friend,

For 73 days this year, Virginians sheltered in place under the Governor's "stay at home" order. But the reality for almost 200 neighbors within the Micah community was that they had no shelter in which to place.

Through the love of the churches, Micah committed to remaining a lighthouse in the storm – to securing emergency, socially-distanced motel rooms for our vulnerable neighbors. The doors of Micah Hospitality Center stayed open for showers, clean clothes, and other basic provisions. Thousands of hot meals were delivered.

Transitions into permanent housing (51 and counting) were expedited. And even a pandemic couldn't stop the creative ways Micah helped our neighbors increase their income. Battle buddies showed up, distributing cleaning supplies, masks, and hand sanitizers. The churches of Fredericksburg showed up, even if that meant gathering in a parking lot six feet apart.

Our prayer remains, if only for a season, that we get everyone off the street and no one has to return to the street. That all of our neighbors continue to experience the security and stability of shelter, and eventually a permanent home. That they don't just survive. That they thrive.

Here are some ways you can make an impact:

$15 provides a night of winter shelter for one person

$25 buys a tent or sleeping bag

$30 keeps someone in housing for a day

$45 keeps someone in a socially distanced shelter bed for a night

$100 buys a night of respite care for a person recovering from a hospital visit

$200 a day sparks the spiritual walk of new disciples

$350 a day provides basic needs of people living on the street

$900 covers the average rental deposit

$1500 bridges someone to work

$5,000 a month supports the missional and spiritual community that is forming among our neighbors

Thank you for loving your neighbor!

Sign up for Sacred Ground

As part of our continuing work related to racial justice and reconciliation, I encourage St. Georgians to consider "what can I do?" Awareness, relationships, and commitment to action are all important. The Ministry for Racial Justice and Healing of our Diocese of Virginia is offering the Episcopal Church's "Sacred Ground" curriculum. For each session, participants will watch documentaries and read articles. They will then gather on Zoom for conversation to help peel away the layers that have contributed to the challenges and divides of the present day – all while grounded in our call to faith, hope and love. There are two schedule options, beginning in mid-February. Learn more and register here.
