The Third Sunday of Easter April 18, 2021

from the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and Enriching Our Worship, supplemental liturgical materials approved by the Episcopal Church.

We invite you to prepare for worship by observing silence or taking time for private prayer. We are glad you are here!

Greeting and Welcome

Prelude

One minute of silence follows the prelude.

Opening Reading: "The Seed of God"

Meister Eckhart

The seed of God is in us.
Given an intelligent and hardworking farmer,
it will thrive and grow up into God, whose seed it is; and accordingly its fruits will be God-nature.
Pear seeds grow into pear trees, nut seeds into nut trees, and God seeds into God.

Hymn 193: "That Easter Day with joy was bright"

Puer Nobis

sung by the cantor

1 That Easter day with joy as bright;
the sun shone out with fairer light,
when, to their longing eyes restored,
th'apostles saw their risen Lord.

4 O Lord of all with us abide in this our joyful Eastertide;
from every weapon death can wield thin own redeemed for ever shield.

2 His risen flesh with radiance glowed;
his wounded hands and feet he showed;
those scars their solemn witness gave that Christ was risen from the grave.

5 All praise, O risen Lord, we give to thee, who, dead again dost live;
to God the Father equal praise,
and God the Holy Ghost, we raise.

3 O Jesus, King of gentleness, do thou thyself our hearts possess that we may give thee all our days
the willing tribute of our praise.

A Prayer for the Evening

Officiant: We light a candle in the name of the Maker, Alleluia.

People: who lit the world and breathed the breath of life for us, alleluia...

Officiant: We light a candle in the name of the Son, alleluia,

People: who saved the world and stretched out his hand to us alleluia...

Officiant: We light a candle in the name of the Spirit, alleluia,

People: who encompasses the world and blesses our souls with yearning, alleluia...

The Reading

Luke 24:36b - 48

While the disciples were telling how they had seen Jesus risen from the dead, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you-- that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is observed after the reading

Meditation

The Rev. Joseph H. Hensley, Jr.

One minute of silence will follow.

Music for Meditation

Prayers for Ourselves and Others Please stand.

Officiant: Almighty God, you have promised to hear when we pray in the name of your Son. Therefore in confidence and trust we pray for the Church and for all who serve you in it.

Officiant Loving God, enliven the Church for its mission.

People: That we may be salt to the earth and light to the world.

Officiant: Breathe fresh life into your people.

People: Give us power to reveal Christ in word and action.

Officiant: Creator of all, lead us and every people into the ways of justice and peace.

People: That we may respect one another in freedom and truth.

Officiant: Awaken in us a sense of wonder for the earth and all that is in it.

People: Teach us to care creatively for its resources.

Officiant: God of Truth, inspire with your wisdom those whose decisions affect the lives of others.

People: That all may act with integrity and courage.

Officiant: Give grace to all those whose lives are linked with ours.

All: May we serve Christ in one another, and love as he loves us.

Officiant: Let us now name before God those for whom we offer our personal prayers, either silently or aloud.

The people add their intentions silently or aloud.

Officiant: O God, you have called us to serve you.

All: Grant that we may walk in your presence: your love in our hearts, your truth in our minds, your strength in our wills, until, at the end of our journey, we know the joy of our homecoming and the welcome of your embrace, through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Officiant: Let us confess our deep need for God's renewing and forgiving love.

All: O God, gladly we live and move and have our being in you. Yet always in the midst of this creation-glory, we see sin's shadow and feel death's darkness: around us in the earth, sea and sky, the abuse of matter; beside us in the broken, the hungry and the poor, the betrayal of one another; and often, deep within us, a striving against your Spirit. O Trinity of love, forgive us that we may forgive one another, heal us that we may be people of healing, and renew us that we also may be makers of peace. Amen.

Additional Prayers of Intercession + Thanksgiving + Healing

During the instrumental music and hymn, and at any time hereafter, you are welcome to share a prayer request by submitting via the comment or chat function.

Music for Meditation

Hymn: "Come and fill"

Taize

sung by the cantor

Come and fill our hearts with your peace. You alone O God are holy.

Come and fill our hearts with your peace. Alleluia.

Please rise or rise in spirit.

Officiant: Let us pray:

All: Eternal Spirit Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all. Loving God, in whom is heaven. The hallowing of your name echo through the universe! The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth! Your heavenly will be done by all created beings! Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

The Grace (please stand)

See that ye be at peace among yourselves, and love one another. Follow the example of good men and women of old and God will comfort you and help you, both in this world and in the world which is to come. In the name of God: Life-Giver, Pain-Bearer + Love-Maker. Amen.

The Peace

Christ the Good Shepherd is risen from the dead and binds us with a bond of love that cannot be broken. My sisters and brothers, the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you. all are invited to pass the peace by waving or bowing

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. We invite you to share your gifts in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation, especially during this time when we cannot receive those offerings in person. Make your offering online (<http://bit.ly/stggive>) or by mail to the church.

Music for Meditation

The Eucharistic Prayer Please stand.

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And with your spirit

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Holy Ruler of all creation.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds:

O God of mystery and promise, you invite us to discover you in the intimate places of ourselves and our lives. You invite us to discover you within the complexities of our humanity, in passionate and tender loving, in struggle and pain, in confusion and unknowing, in flashes of insight and wisdom. You also call us beyond ourselves to places of imagination, beyond the silent stars, in the deep rhythms of the ocean, in the unending cycles of day and night, seasons of life and death. With saints and ancestors, with the seas and earth and sky, with animals and birds, with our friends and those unknown to us, with all creation we join in the song of your unending glory:

Sanctus WLP 850

Jonathan Dimmock

sung by the cantor

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest, the highest.

The Celebrant proceeds:

We praise you that in Jesus Christ you make known to us the wonder and richness of our humanity. We give thanks for his life-giving love, for his healing touch, for his vulnerability and for his gentleness. Before he gave up his life, he shared his humanity, his flesh and blood with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks for it, broke it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me."

So too after they had eaten, he took wine, gave thanks for it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my blood, poured out in love for you. Do this to remember me."

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Come now, Spirit of God, come upon us and upon this bread and wine. Make us one body, food for the world, one blood to be poured out for the life of all. Touch us with your gentle creativity and fire us with longing for the new age of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus who gave his body that we might be one and his blood that we might find new life. With him, and through him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be to you, O God, all honor and glory forever. Amen.

Celebrant: As Christ has taught us, we now pray,

People and Celebrant:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

"O, risen Lord"

sung by the cantor

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world,

grant us your peace, grant us your peace.

A period of silence is kept.

Ralph R. Stewart

Celebrant: This is the table, not of the Church, but of our God.

It is made ready for those who love God and those who want to love more.

So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is God who invites you.

It is Love's will that those who want God should meet Love here.

All: Faithful God, in the wonder of your wisdom and love, you fed your people in the wilderness with the bread of angels and you sent Jesus to be the bread of life. Though we cannot consume these gifts of bread and wine together, we thank you that we have received Christ's presence, the forgiveness of sins, and all other benefits of Christ's passion and resurrection. By the power of the Holy Spirit, may we embody your love, be renewed for your service, and be reflections of the awakened and risen Lord. Amen.

Clergy will provide instructions for receiving communion.

Gluten-free communion bread is available at the altar. Please let the clergy know of your need.

Music during Communion

After Communion

Please stand.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

Blessing

May the God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Savior Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, make you perfect in every good work to do the will of God; and the blessing of the one, holy and undivided Trinity, the author of creation, the bearer of salvation, and the advocate of life, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Hymn WLP 773: "Heal me, hands of Jesus"

Sharpe

sung by the cantor

1 Heal me, hands of Jesus, and search out all my pain:
restore my hope, remove my fear and bring me peace again.

3 Know me, mind of Jesus,
and show me all my sin;
dispel the memories of guilt,
and bring me peace within.

2 Cleanse me, blood of Jesus,
take bitterness away;
let me forgive as one forgiven and bring me peace today.

4 Fill me, joy of Jesus:
anxiety shall cease
and heaven's serenity be mine,
or Jesus brings me peace!

The Dismissal

Officiant: Go into the world in peace, have courage, hold on to what is good, return no one evil for evil, strengthen the faint-hearted, support the weak, help the suffering, honor everyone, love and serve God, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit. Alleluia, alleluia.

All: Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

St. George's Preschool's Spring Scholarship Fundraiser

Please join us in supporting our little Dragons' scholarship fund by sponsoring our flower garden this year. Our preschool families, both current and alumni, are busy creating art flowers for us to turn into an art collage. Large flowers can be sponsored for $100, small flowers for $25 and leaves for $10. Our fundraiser will run through April 20 and donations can be made to St. George's Preschool by check mailed to St. George's Episcopal Church, PO Box 7127, Fredericksburg, VA 22401 or online. All proceeds will benefit the preschool's scholarship fund. For more information and to take a virtual tour of our preschool, please visit <https://sgpreschool.wordpress.com>.

Worship Schedule Changes

For updates and details visit stgeorgesepiscopal.net

We are pleased to share our updated worship schedule with you. We look forward to safely gathering for worship and fellowship as a parish family, gradually implementing our regathering plan, approved by the Diocese.

Our permission to gather indoors is still contingent on COVID case numbers staying below 25 new daily cases per 100k people (rolling 7-day average) in our area (Fredericksburg, Stafford, Spotsylvania). Each Thursday, we will check the latest data and cancel in-person worship if needed for that Sunday, notifying everyone who has registered. We will still have our livestream worship and distribution of communion from the narthex from 11 am - 12 pm.
