or tradition.

July 18, 2021

The mission of the Church is to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ.
- Book of Common Prayer, pg. 855

Welcome to St. George's!

Whether you are worshiping online or in person, we are glad you are here.

Thank you for continuing to wear your facial covering (such as a mask) during indoor services as it allows us to more safely reduce other restrictions on distancing and singing.

Giving

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Your generous gifts help fund our ministries and serve the community. Thank you.

In person donations are welcomed at one of the collection plates in the entryway or in the aisle.

You can make a one-time or recurring gift electronically or text to give (send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133). You can also mail a check to the church office. For assistance, contact Business Manager Ben Hicks.

Your Gifts at Work

Recently, your gifts to St. George's have helped us to:

- Witness to the love of God for all at Pride
- Deliver Community Dinner meals to our neighbors in need
- Make our church more welcoming by updating our HVAC system

These and many other ministries happen because of your generosity. Thank you!

Formation for All Ages

“Make me to know your ways,
O Lord; teach me your paths.”
Psalm 25:4

Learning and Growing in Christ

No matter where you are on your faith journey, there's a place for you here. We offer a number of faith formation opportunities for all ages. You are invited to visit or join at any time.

Please note the changes to our children and youth formation for the summer (June - August)

Children's Ministry Summer Schedule

Our Formation will be held from 9 – 9:30 am. The first Sunday of the month will be a children's live Zoom gathering (except for July 4th). The link will be provided in the children and families Facebook Group. The third Sunday of the month we will offer an in-person story time for our children in front of the Renwick building downtown (the grassy area across the street from Sydnor Hall). The last Sunday of the month will be a pre-recorded children's homily led by one of our clergy (posted to our St. George's children's YouTube page). Our program year resumes in September.

Youth Ministry Summer Schedule

We have two remaining youth group outings planned for the summer.

On Sunday 8/8 we will meet from 11:30 am – 1 pm for tubing at the Virginia Outdoor Center followed by picnic at Old Mill Park). Our program year resumes in September.

Worship Schedule:

Updated for the Summer!

Sundays:

7:45 am: Rite I with Holy Communion, in-person worship

10 am: Rite II with Holy Communion, in-person and livestreamed. Features liturgies from the Book of Common Prayer and Enriching Our Worship. It premieres on YouTube Live at 10 am and is posted on Facebook after the service ends.

11 am: Parishioner Michele Prout-Alston will be leading a conversation on Christian teaching and scripture as it relates to climate change based on the book Hospitable Planet.

Greeting and Welcome

Prelude

One minute of silence follows the prelude.

Opening Reading: The Peace of Wild Things

Wendell Berry

When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.
I come into the peace of wild things who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.
And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

Hymn 645: "The King of love my Shepherd is"

St. Columba

all invited to sing while wearing a mask

1 The King of love my shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his,
and he is mine for ever.

4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill with thee, dear Lord, beside me;
thy rod and staff my comfort still,
thy cross before to guide me.

2 Where streams of living water flow,
my ransomed soul he leadeth,
and where the verdant pastures grow,
with food celestial feedeth.

5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
thy unction grace bestoweth;
and oh, what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth!

3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love he sought me,
and on his shoulder gently laid,
and home, rejoicing, brought me.

6 And so through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house for ever.

A Prayer for the Evening

Officiant: Move among us, O God, give us life.

All: Let your people rejoice in you.

Officiant: Make our hearts clean within us.

All: Renew us in mind, body and spirit.

Officiant: Give us again the joy of your help.

All: With your spirit of freedom sustain us.

Officiant: O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Reading

Mark 6:30 - 34, 53 - 56

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is observed after the reading

Meditation

The Rev. Areeta D. Bridgemohan

One minute of silence will follow.

Music for Meditation

Prayers for Ourselves and Others Please stand.

(In the silences that follow each petition, please feel free to pray for particular people and situations, either silently or aloud.)

Officiant: Let us pray for ourselves and others.

Officiant We pray for all who work through the power of Christ, serving the needs of the poor and healing the wounds of injustice, division and materialism in our society. God of new life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Officiant: We pray for the elderly, the sick and the lonely among us: that they may receive comfort, companionship and care from those around them. God of new life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Officiant: We pray that those who have been persecuted or seriously wronged by others may experience warmth and love with Christ, and be able to forgive those who have hurt them. God of new life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Officiant: We pray that when we are discouraged, we may find strength in the signs of a loving and faithful God in those around us, and the joy of the Holy Spirit within us. God of new life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Officiant: We pray for those whom we love but see no longer, those who have gone beyond the veil of this mortal life, that their souls and the souls of all the departed may rest in peace. God of new life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Officiant: We pray for all who have asked for our prayers and for those who have no one to pray for them. God of new life,

People: Hear our prayer.

Officiant: Great Spirit God, we give you thanks for another day on this earth. We give you thanks for this day to enjoy the compassionate goodness of you, our Creator. We acknowledge with one mind our respect and gratefulness to all the sacred cycle of life. Bind us together in the circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and one another. Amen

Officiant: Let us confess our deep need for God's renewing and forgiving love.
All: O God, gladly we live and move and have our being in you. Yet always in the midst of this creation-glory, we see sin's shadow and feel death's darkness: around us in the earth, sea and sky, the abuse of matter; beside us in the broken, the hungry and the poor, the betrayal of one another; and often, deep within us, a striving against your Spirit. O Trinity of love, forgive us that we may forgive one another, heal us that we may be people of healing, and renew us that we also may be makers of peace. Amen.

Additional Prayers of Intercession + Thanksgiving + Healing

During the instrumental music and hymn, and at any time hereafter, you are welcome to share a prayer request by submitting via the comment or chat function.

Hymn: "Bless the Lord, my soul"
sung by the cantor

Taize

Bless the Lord, my soul. And bless God's holy name.
Bless the Lord, my soul. Who leads me into life.

Please rise or rise in spirit.

Officiant: Let us pray:

All: Eternal Spirit Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all. Loving God, in whom is heaven. The hallowing of your name echo through the universe! The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth! Your heavenly will be done by all created beings! Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

The Grace (please stand)

Now my friends, all that is true, all that is noble, all that is just and pure, all that is lovable and gracious, whatever is excellent and admirable; with these let us fill our hearts, and the God of heaven will be with us. Amen.

The Peace

Christ, the Good Shepherd, binds us with a bond of love that cannot be broken. My sisters and brothers, the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
And also with you. all are invited to pass the peace by waving or bowing

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. We invite you to share your gifts in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation, especially during this time when we cannot receive those offerings in person. Make your offering online (<http://bit.ly/stggive>) or by mail to the church.

The Eucharistic Prayer Please stand.

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And with your spirit

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Holy Ruler of all creation.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds:

O God of mystery and promise, you invite us to discover you in the intimate places of ourselves and our lives. You invite us to discover you within the complexities of our humanity, in passionate and tender loving, in struggle and pain, in confusion and unknowing, in flashes of insight and wisdom. You also call us beyond ourselves to places of imagination, beyond the silent stars, in the deep rhythms of the ocean, in the unending cycles of day and night, seasons of life and death. With saints and ancestors, with the seas and earth and sky, with animals and birds, with our friends and those unknown to us, with all creation we join in the song of your unending glory:

Sanctus WLP 850

Jonathan Dimmock

sung by the cantor

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest, the highest.

The Celebrant proceeds:

We praise you that in Jesus Christ you make known to us the wonder and richness of our humanity. We give thanks for his life-giving love, for his healing touch, for his vulnerability and for his gentleness. Before he gave up his life, he shared his humanity, his flesh and blood with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks for it, broke it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me."

So too after they had eaten, he took wine, gave thanks for it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my blood, poured out in love for you. Do this to remember me."

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Come now, Spirit of God, come upon us and upon this bread and wine. Make us one body, food for the world, one blood to be poured out for the life of all. Touch us with your gentle creativity and fire us with longing for the new age of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus who gave his body that we might be one and his blood that we might find new life. With him, and through him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be to you, O God, all honor and glory forever. Amen.

Celebrant: As Christ has taught us, we now pray,

People and Celebrant:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

"O, risen Lord"

sung by the cantor

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world,

grant us your peace, grant us your peace.

A period of silence is kept.

Ralph R. Stewart

Celebrant: This is the table, not of the Church, but of our God.

It is made ready for those who love God and those who want to love more.

So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is God who invites you.

It is Love's will that those who want God should meet Love here.

Clergy will provide instructions for receiving communion.

Gluten-free communion bread is available at the altar. Please let the clergy know of your need.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

Offered privately by those who are not able to be physically present.

Faithful God, in the wonder of your wisdom and love, you fed your people in the wilderness with the bread of angels and you sent Jesus to be the bread of life. Though we cannot consume these gifts of bread and wine together, we thank you that we have received Christ's presence, the forgiveness of sins, and all other benefits of Christ's passion and resurrection. By the power of the Holy Spirit, may we embody your love, be renewed for your service, and be reflections of the awakened and risen Lord. Amen.

Music during Communion

After Communion

Please stand.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

Blessing

May the God who shakes the heaven and earth, whom death could not contain, who lives to disturb and heal us, bless you with power to go forth and proclaim the Gospel. Amen.

Hymn 529: "In Christ, there is no east or west"

McKee

all invited to sing while wearing a mask

1 In Christ there is no East or West, in him no South or North,
but one great fellowship of love
throughout the whole wide earth.

2 Join hands, disciples of the faith, whate'er your race may be!
Who serves my Father as his child is surely kin to me.

3 In Christ now meet both East and West, in him meet South and North,
all Christly souls are one in him,
throughout the whole wide earth

The Dismissal

Officiant: Go into the world in peace, have courage, hold on to what is good, return no one evil for evil, strengthen the faint-hearted, support the weak, help the suffering, honor everyone, love and serve God, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

All: Thanks be to God.

Celtic Evensong Today at 5:30 pm

Worship with us today at 5:30 pm for our Celtic Evensong. The service will include Holy Communion. We will offer it in-person and live stream via our YouTube Live Channel.

New Music for 10am Service

You might notice that beginning today, the 10 am service will alternate between jazz-style music and more traditional-style, as we have done during the summer in years past. You may also see some familiar prayers from Enriching our Worship. We know St. Georgians love the variety of our worship, and we hope you'll enjoy these opportunities while we prepare for the Fall.

Need a Name Tag?

Help others put a name with your smiling face by wearing a name tag on Sundays. Please contact Jan Meredith (jan.meredith@stgeorgesepiscopal.net) if you need one.

Today's Altar Arrangement:

is given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of loved ones by Miriam Jones Parsons and Kevin Jones.

Wednesday Noon Eucharist Returns

Beginning July 21, the Wednesday Eucharist at Noon will resume in person. This is a great opportunity to try worshipping in person for those not yet comfortable coming Sunday morning, as well as those looking for a meditative space during the week. This service will continue to include healing prayer, and please contact Fr. Will if you would like to volunteer for this service.

Ending Communion in the Narthex

We are so grateful to all who have helped the clergy offer Holy Communion in the Narthex after the Lives-tream service. Since we are offering more and more in-person opportunities, and since clergy and lay ministers are now available to make visits, we are bringing this practice to an end. If you would like a Lay visit with Communion, please contact Ann Tebbutt (ann.tebbutt@hotmail.com). If you would like to receive Communion from the clergy, please contact them and we will make arrangements. We want to make sure all have access to Jesus!

Recurring Gifts Keep on Giving

Summer is wonderful time to make the switch to gifts which recur automatically from your bank account or credit card. This ensures a steady flow of resources to empower our ministries and helps the donor as well. For more information, contact our business manager, Ben Hicks. Thank you for your generous support.

Shrine Mont UPDATE

In consultation with the good folks at Shrine Mont, we have increased our capacity to 150 for our October 8 - 10 Weekend. If you are on the wait list, you should have received an email this week with information about registration. Please complete your registration form as soon as you can. On July 26, online registration will reopen until we hit the 150 mark, and we will go back to taking names for a wait list. Also on July 26, online payment will open back up for those who would like to pay their remaining balance via PayPal. Thank you for your patience! If you have questions, please email Danielle Davis

Parish Movie Night: July 25th

Join us to watch the documentary produced by the Anglican Church of Canada: "Doctrine of Discovery: Stolen Lands, Strong Hearts" and for an engaging conversation afterwards with Professor Corinne Graves, Professor of Sociology at Germanna Community College, who teaches on Race and Ethnicity. Movie showing and conversation will be held from 4-6.30pm on Sunday July 25th, in Barber Hall, Trinity Episcopal Church. Parking is available and entrance is on William Street. You are encouraged to bring snacks and beverages. Masks are encouraged but not required.

Vacation Bible School (VBS) 2021

July 19 - 23 we invite all children (1st – 5th grades) to join us for Vacation Bible School (VBS). This year's program - "Compassion Camp, changing the world through lovingkindness" - will be a hybrid format. There will be pre-recorded Bible story videos to watch at home for three of the days. On July 21 and 23, we will gather in-person at 10 am at Old Mill Park Shelter #2. Register on our website (www.stgeorgesepiscopal.net). We look forward to seeing everyone at Compassion Camp!

Avis Harris ECW Summer Get-Together

The Avis Harris ECW will meet for lunch on Wednesday, July 28, at 1 pm at Basilico New York Deli's Harrison Crossing location, 7013 Harrison Road. Lunch, snacks, and beverages will be available for individual purchase. The meeting will be an informal opportunity for members and those interested in learning about ECW to gather. Please RSVP by Wednesday, July 21 to Paula Seamon at phseamon@gmail.com. ECW membership is open to women of all ages, and we look forward to welcoming prospective members.
