Giving

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Your generous gifts help fund our ministries and serve the community. Thank you.

In person donations are welcomed at one of the collection plates in the entryway or in the aisle.

You can make a one-time or recurring gift electronically or text to give (send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133). You can also mail a check to the church office. For assistance, contact Business Manager Ben Hicks.

Your Gifts at Work

Recently, your gifts to St. George's have helped:

- Purchase to classroom air purifiers for the preschool to help provide a healthy environment as we return to school
- Celebrate as a parish family in Old Mill Park with outdoor worship, Holy Baptism, and picnic
- Refinish the floors in our beloved Sydnor Hall.

These and many other ministries happen because of your generosity. Thank you!

Prelude

One minute of silence follows the prelude. Please rise or rise in spirit at the ringing of the bell.

Opening Reading: Kindness

Naomi Shihab Nye

Before you know what kindness really is you must lose things,
feel the future dissolve in a moment
like salt in a weakened broth.
What you held in your hand,
what you counted and carefully saved,
all this must go so you know how desolate the landscape can be between the regions of kindness.
How you ride and ride
thinking the bus will never stop,
the passengers eating maize and chicken will stare out the window forever.

Then it is only kindness that makes sense anymore,
only kindness that ties your shoes and sends you out into the day to mail letters and purchase bread, only kindness that raises its head
from the crowd of the world to say It is I you have been looking for,
and then goes with you everywhere
like a shadow or a friend.
Come to me, broken, hungry, incomplete,
I Am the Bread of Life, break Me and eat.

Hymn 482: "Lord of all hopefulness"
sung by the cantor

Slane

Gather in God's Name

Opening sentences from Iona prayer book:

Officiant: We light a light in the name of the Maker,

People: Who lit the world and breathed the breath of life for us.

Officiant: We light a light in the name of Christ

People: Who saved the world and stretched out a hand to us.

Officiant: We light a light in name of the Spirit

People: Who encompasses the world and blesses our souls with yearning.

Officiant: We gather in the name of the Trinity of Love

People: God above us, God beside us, God beneath us

Officiant: The beginning, the end, the everlasting one.

Proclaim and Respond to the Word of God

The Reading from the Gospel

Mark 9:30 - 37

Jesus and his disciples went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again." But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him. Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is observed after the reading

Meditation

The Rev. Joseph H. Hensley, Jr.

Two minutes of silence will follow.

Music for Meditation

Pray for the World and the Church

Please stand.

Officiant: Let us call upon Holy Wisdom who rejoices in God's creation and delights in the human race (Proverbs 8:31), that she may guide us, in awe and wonder, to pray. In the silences following each bidding, we offer our prayers for particular needs.

Leader 1: O Wisdom, created by God at the beginning, lead us to pray for God's people everywhere and all who minister in the church of Christ, that we may have grace to build up God's people in love.

silence

Leader 2: Holy Wisdom by whom justice is decreed, help us pray for the nations of the earth and for all in authority, that all may do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with God. Give us humility to remember and respect the first nations of this land, including the Patawomeck people of this region in whose ancestral home we live today.

silence

Leader 1: Wisdom, God's master helper in the making of the world, assist us as we pray for the well-being of all creation, for earth, air, water, and all creatures, that we may turn from destruction and seek the wholeness of what God has called good.

silence

Leader 2: Blessed Wisdom, whose cry is to all that live, inspire us as we pray for healing and the relief of those in any trouble or adversity.

silence

Leader 1: Hagia Sophia, whose root is the awe of God and whose branches are long life, instruct us as we pray for all other concerns of this community.

silence

Leader 2: Holy Wisdom who has led the saints by a marvelous way, assist us as we pray for those who have died and all who mourn, that we may hope in the midst of sorrow and rejoice in the midst of loss.

Officiant: Holy Wisdom, in your loving kindness you created and restored us when we were lost: inspire us with your truth, that we may love you with our whole minds and run to you with open hearts through Christ our Savior. Amen.

If you like, please come forward during the music and light a candle as an embodied symbol of your prayer. Please help us to keep a bit of distance between one another.

Music for Meditation

"O Lord, hear my prayer"

Taize

sung by the cantor

O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord, hear my prayer.

When I call, answer me.

O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord, hear my prayer.

Come and listen to me.

Officiant: Let us pray, alternating sides of the church, beginning on this side (lectern/north):

Lectern/north side: Eternal Spirit Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, Pulpit/south side: source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all.

Lectern: Loving God, in whom is heaven,

Pulpit: the hallowing of your name echo through the universe!

Lectern: The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth!

Pulpit: Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!

Lectern: Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

Pulpit: With the bread we need for today, feed us.

Lectern: In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.

Pulpit: In times of temptation and test, spare us.

Lectern: From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

Pulpit: For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever.

Amen.

Exchange the Peace

Officiant: Christ has broken down the dividing wall and has proclaimed peace and wholeness to those who were far off and to those who were near. My siblings, brothers, and sisters, the Peace of our Savior Jesus Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace with a wave or bow.

Prepare the Table

Celebrant: As we prepare to make Eucharist, the holy feast of thanksgiving and grace, we present ourselves and our gifts to God and remember that Jesus said, "Abide in my love...I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete."

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. As the table is prepared, we invite you to consider a gift in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. Make your offering online (<http://bit.ly/stggive>), in the alms basin provided in the aisle, or by mail to the church. Please note the announcements at the rear of this bulletin. For the latest updates and messages of encouragement, check our website (StGeorgesEpiscopal.net) and subscribe to our email newsletter (<http://bit.ly/stgenews>).

Music for Meditation

Make Eucharist

Please stand.

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And with your spirit

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Holy Ruler of all creation.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds:

O God of mystery and promise, you invite us to discover you in the intimate places of ourselves and our lives. You invite us to discover you within the complexities of our humanity, in passionate and tender loving, in struggle and pain, in confusion and unknowing, in flashes of insight and wisdom. You also call us beyond ourselves to places of imagination, beyond the silent stars, in the deep rhythms of the ocean, in the unending cycles of day and night, seasons of life and death. With saints and ancestors, with the seas and earth and sky, with animals and birds, with our friends and those unknown to us, with all creation we join in the song of your unending glory:

Sanctus Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP) 850:

Jonathan Dimmock

sung by the cantor

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest, the highest.

The Celebrant proceeds:

We praise you that in Jesus Christ you make known to us the wonder and richness of our humanity. We give thanks for his life-giving love, for his healing touch, for his vulnerability and for his gentleness. Before he gave up his life, he shared his humanity, his flesh and blood with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks for it, broke it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me."

So too after they had eaten, he took wine, gave thanks for it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my blood, poured out in love for you. Do this to remember me."

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Come now, Spirit of God, come upon us and upon this bread and wine. Make us one body, food for the world, one blood to be poured out for the life of all. Touch us with your gentle creativity and fire us with longing for the new age of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus who gave his body that we might be one and his blood that we might find new life. With him, and through him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be to you, O God, all honor and glory forever. Amen.

Celebrant: I invite us to pray as Jesus taught his disciples:

People and Celebrant:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Break the Bread and Share the Gifts of God

"O, risen Lord"

Ralph R. Stewart

sung by the cantor

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world,

grant us your peace, grant us your peace.

Celebrant: This is the table, not of the Church, but of our God.
It is made ready for those who love God and those who want to love more.
So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is God who invites you.
It is Love's will that those who want God should meet Love here.

Those who wish to receive communion may come forward when invited by an usher, staying single file and maintaining a generous distance. To receive the wafer of bread, the body of Christ, extend your open hands and we will gently drop a wafer into your hand without making contact. Gluten free wafers are available; just tell us of your need. Once you have received the wafer, hold it in your hand and return to your seat when you can briefly remove your mask and reverently consume the bread. If you do not wish to receive the bread and would like a blessing, come forward with you hands across your chest, and we will offer a blessing in the name of God.

Music during Communion

After Communion

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Please stand.

All: Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

Blessing

Celebrant: God's blessing be with you. Christ's peace be with you, the Spirit's outpouring be with you, now and always. Amen.

Go into the World

Hymn 487: "Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life"
sung by the cantor

The Call

The Dismissal

Officiant: Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road and may God's blessing be upon you always. Amen. Source: Clare of Assisi

We will have a coffee hour outside Faulkner Hall for our Early Birds - following the 7:45 am service.

At 10 am, join us in Market Square for a special time of formation, fellowship, and coffee! We will have a special coffee hour outdoors. Also, there will be Formation for Children (5th grade and under). Youth (6th grade and older) are invited to serve as helpers.

Parish Update - Next Sunday

Join us next Sunday at 10 am for an update on our parish led by the rector: a vision for mission over the next 5 years, opportunities for ministry, The Table, our 300th anniversary, and more. The meeting will be hybrid with in-person seating in the nave and the option to join via Zoom. Meeting ID: 824 7175 7491; Passcode: 568753; Dial-in: 301.715.8592

Today's Altar Arrangement:

is given to the Glory of God by Mary Ann Rowe and family and in loving memory of her parents, Esther and John Hubert Else.

Media Guild:

Help us share services online

Since last fall, we have been blessed by the staff work of Nicholas Perron (livestream operator) and Amy Bogardus (social media monitor) as we livestream one service. We are looking for people who would like to learn these media tools so that we can possibly expand our capacity. Please contact the church office (office@stgeorgesepiscopal.net) if you are interested in learning more so that we can share with people near and far who enjoy our services online.

Concert Series Begins Today

Our beloved Concert Series returns for the 2021-2022 season today at 3 pm in the nave. Join us for an Early Music Concert featuring Washington's Camerata. The concert is free with donations accepted at the door. Please note that masks are required for all - vaccinated or unvaccinated - over the age of 2. Seating will be staggered to help maintain social distancing.

The Bishop is Coming!

Bishop Porter Taylor, our Assisting Bishop, will be with us for the 9 and 11:15 services on October 3rd. He will preach and pray and visit with us for the first time, since he arrived in Virginia during the pandemic. We hope you'll join us for this exciting Sunday!

Parish Prayer Partners in Fall

Our rector, Joe has called the parish to strengthen our net of relationships and invited us all to consider becoming prayer partners as a Fall/Advent practice. We will assign someone for whom you will pray. Meanwhile, someone else will be praying for you. You can participate as an individual or with others in your household. The identity of the partners remains secret until a revealing event shortly after the season ends. Each week you will receive an email with encouragement and ways to pray. This season of prayer partners will run from October 6 through November 17. To sign up, contact Jan by October 3: jan.meredith@stgeorgesepiscopal.net
