Celtic Evensong with Holy Communion

November 21, 2021 at 5:30 pm

You are welcome at
St. George's Church:
Regardless of race,
nationality,
sexual orientation,
gender expression,
or tradition.

November 21, 2021

The mission of the Church is to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ.
- Book of Common Prayer, pg. 855

Welcome to St. George's!

Whether you are worshiping online or in person, we are glad you are here.

Thank you for continuing to wear your facial covering (such as a mask) during indoor services.

Request Prayer

We share in each other's joys and concerns. Send us your prayer requests at: bit.ly/stgprayer.

Giving

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Your generous gifts help fund our ministries and serve the community.

Thank you.

In person donations are welcomed at one of the collection plates in the entryway or in the aisle.

You can make a one-time or recurring gift electronically or text to give (send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133). You can also mail a check to the church office. For assistance, contact Business Manager Ben Hicks.

Your Gifts at Work

Recently, your gifts to St. George's have helped:

- Celebrate our 300th Anniversary with a Historic Worship service
- Host Scary Music for Organ – welcoming 127 people from our parish and community

These and many other ministries happen because of your generosity. Thank you!

Our Annual Giving Campaign for 2022 is Moving

For many years, we have held a campaign each fall inviting households to make an estimate of their giving in the coming year. This year we are moving our campaign to January - February of 2022. In the meantime, we ask you to keep giving and give thanks for every gift in support of our ministry together, sharing God's love in a hurting world.

Reign of Christ

November 21, 2021

from the red Book of Common Prayer
(BCP), Enriching Our Worship, and forms of prayer from around the world.

We invite you to prepare for worship by observing silence or taking time for private prayer. We are glad you are here!

We welcome you to this service, whether you have been here often or if this is your first time. Please use this bulletin as your guide to participate. Please note the announcements about ways to connect and upcoming events. May this time of worship and prayer be a blessing to you.

Prelude

One minute of silence follows the prelude. Please rise or rise in spirit at the ringing of the bell.

Opening Reading: The Lamb Walks Forward

Elizabeth Spragins

*The Lamb walks forward, looking back
That we not stray when nights are black.
We follow the light
In faith, beyond sight,
Though we might fear our lack.*

*When battles charred both town and byre,
And cannon targeted our spire,
Unmerited grace
Protected this place—
Sacred space for God's fire.*

*We kneel upon the knotted wood
Where sinners, saints, and soldiers stood.
The wounded, the slave,
The broken, the brave
In this nave prayed for good.*

*The Spirit wanders through these halls
And warms the hearts that weaken walls
At table, at play,
At dusk of the day,
When Yahweh's whisper calls.*

*The Lord who leads us gives us bread
That we might share and all be fed,
That we might uphold
The weak with our gold
And the cold with warm bed.*

Hymn 458 (St. 1,2 +7): "My song is love unknown
All invited to sing while wearing a mask

Love Unknown

Gather in God's Name

Opening sentences from Iona prayer book:

Officiant: We light a light in the name of the Maker,

People: Who lit the world and breathed the breath of life for us.

Officiant: We light a light in the name of Christ

People: Who saved the world and stretched out a hand to us.

Officiant: We light a light in name of the Spirit

People: Who encompasses the world and blesses our souls with yearning.

Officiant: We gather in the name of the Trinity of Love

People: God above us, God beside us, God beneath us

Officiant: The beginning, the end, the everlasting one.

Proclaim and Respond to the Word of God

The Reading from the Gospel

John 18:33 - 37

Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?" Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here." Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is observed after the reading

Meditation

Two minutes of silence will follow.

The Rev. William S. Dickinson

Music for Meditation

Pray for the World and the Church

Please stand.

Officiant: Let us call upon Holy Wisdom who rejoices in God's creation and delights in the human race (Proverbs 8:31), that she may guide us, in awe and wonder, to pray. In the silences following each bidding, we offer our prayers for particular needs.

Leader 1: O Wisdom, created by God at the beginning, lead us to pray for God's people everywhere and all who minister in the church of Christ, that we may have grace to build up God's people in love.

silence

Leader 2: Holy Wisdom by whom justice is decreed, help us pray for the nations of the earth and for all in authority, that all may do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with God. Give us humility to remember and respect the first nations of this land, including the Patawomeck people of this region in whose ancestral home we live today.

silence

Leader 1: Wisdom, God's master helper in the making of the world, assist us as we pray for the well-being of all creation, for earth, air, water, and all creatures, that we may turn from destruction and seek the wholeness of what God has called good.

silence

Leader 2: Blessed Wisdom, whose cry is to all that live, inspire us as we pray for healing and the relief of those in any trouble or adversity.

silence

Leader 1: Hagia Sophia, whose root is the awe of God and whose branches are long life, instruct us as we pray for all other concerns of this community.

silence

Leader 2: Holy Wisdom who has led the saints by a marvelous way, assist us as we pray for those who have died and all who mourn, that we may hope in the midst of sorrow and rejoice in the midst of loss.

Officiant: Holy Wisdom, in your loving kindness you created and restored us when we were lost: inspire us with your truth, that we may love you with our whole minds and run to you with open hearts through Christ our Savior. Amen.

If you like, please come forward during the music and light a candle as an embodied symbol of your prayer. Please help us to keep a bit of distance between one another.

Music for Meditation

"O Lord, hear my prayer"

Taize

All invited to sing while wearing a mask

O Lord hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer.

When I call, answer me.

O Lord hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer,

Come and listen to me.

A Collect for the Conclusion of St. George's 300th Anniversary

Almighty and eternal God, you have given us abundant grace and mercy in our celebration of three hundred years of ministry in this place called St. George's parish; as we enter a fourth century, we give thanks to you and ask for strength and courage to continue in faith the work begun in previous generations, that we may hold our history with admiration and repentance, bless our own day with generosity and love, and look forward in hope to your coming reign of peace and justice, through Jesus Christ our Savior and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Officiant: Let us pray, alternating sides of the church, beginning on this side (lectern/north):

Lectern/north side: Eternal Spirit Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, Pulpit/south side: source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all.

Lectern: Loving God, in whom is heaven,

Pulpit: the hallowing of your name echo through the universe!

Lectern: The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth!

Pulpit: Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!

Lectern: Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

Pulpit: With the bread we need for today, feed us.

Lectern: In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.

Pulpit: In times of temptation and test, spare us.

Lectern: From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

Pulpit: For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever.

Amen.

Exchange the Peace

Officiant: Christ has broken down the dividing wall and has proclaimed peace and wholeness to those who were far off and to those who were near. My siblings, brothers, and sisters, the Peace of our Savior Jesus Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace with a wave or bow.

Prepare the Table

As we prepare to make Eucharist, the holy feast of thanksgiving and grace, we present ourselves and our gifts to God and remember that Jesus said, "Abide in my love...I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete."

It is a joy to gather together this evening, and we especially welcome anyone who is visiting or here for the first time. Please see more information in the bulletin notes and feel free to introduce yourself after the service. There are also printed instructions about receiving communion or a blessing.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. As the table is prepared, we invite you to consider a gift in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. Make your offering online (<http://bit.ly/stggive>), in the alms basin provided in the aisle, or by mail to the church. Please note the announcements at the rear of this bulletin. For the latest updates and messages of encouragement, check our website (StGeorgesEpiscopal.net) and subscribe to our email newsletter (<http://bit.ly/stgenews>).

Music for Meditation

Make Eucharist

Please stand.

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And with your spirit

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Holy Ruler of all creation.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds:

O God of mystery and promise, you invite us to discover you in the intimate places of ourselves and our lives. You invite us to discover you within the complexities of our humanity, in passionate and tender loving, in struggle and pain, in confusion and unknowing, in flashes of insight and wisdom. You also call us beyond ourselves to places of imagination, beyond the silent stars, in the deep rhythms of the ocean, in the unending cycles of day and night, seasons of life and death. With saints and ancestors, with the seas and earth and sky, with animals and birds, with our friends and those unknown to us, with all creation we join in the song of your unending glory:

Sanctus Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP) 850:

Jonathan Dimmock

sung by the cantor

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest, the highest.

The Celebrant proceeds:

We praise you that in Jesus Christ you make known to us the wonder and richness of our humanity. We give thanks for his life-giving love, for his healing touch, for his vulnerability and for his gentleness. Before he gave up his life, he shared his humanity, his flesh and blood with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks for it, broke it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me."

So too after they had eaten, he took wine, gave thanks for it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my blood, poured out in love for you. Do this to remember me."

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Come now, Spirit of God, come upon us and upon this bread and wine. Make us one body, food for the world, one blood to be poured out for the life of all. Touch us with your gentle creativity and fire us with longing for the new age of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus who gave his body that we might be one and his blood that we might find new life. With him, and through him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be to you, O God, all honor and glory forever. Amen.

Celebrant: I invite us to pray as Jesus taught his disciples:

People and Celebrant:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Break the Bread and Share the Gifts of God

"O, risen Lord"

Ralph R. Stewart

sung by the cantor

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

O risen Lord, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us your peace, grant us your peace.

Celebrant: This is the table, not of the Church, but of our God.

It is made ready for those who love God and those who want to love more.

So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is God who invites you.

It is Love's will that those who want God should meet Love here.

Those who wish to receive communion may come forward when invited by an usher, staying single file and maintaining a generous distance. To receive the wafer of bread, the body of Christ, extend your open hands and we will gently drop a wafer into your hand without making contact. Gluten free wafers are available; just tell us of your need. Once you have received the wafer, hold it in your hand and return to your seat when you can briefly remove your mask and reverently consume the bread. If you do not wish to receive the bread and would like a blessing, come forward with you hands across your chest, and we will offer a blessing in the name of God.

Music during Communion

After Communion

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Please stand.

All: Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

Blessing

Celebrant: God's blessing be with you. Christ's peace be with you, the Spirit's outpouring be with you, now and always. Amen.

Go into the World

Hymn 529: "In Christ there is no east or west"
sung by the cantor

McKee

The Dismissal

Officiant: Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road and may God's blessing be upon you always. Amen. Source: Clare of Assisi

300th Anniversary Celebrations

Today marks the official end to our 300th Anniversary Celebrations. Today, at each of our services, we will pray a special collect together. Also, at the 9 am and 11:15 am services, our choirs will sing "The Lamb Walks Forward" by John H. Vreeland and lyrics by Elizabeth Spragins, composed especially for our celebrations. Finally, at 2:30 pm we welcome internationally renowned organist Erik Wm. Suter for a special organ concert in our nave. Thank you to all who have helped organize these celebrations.

A Church called "Tov" - Concludes Today

Join us for a 3-part series to talk about creating a culture of goodness in the church and to discuss what religious/spiritual harm is and what healing might look like. The series will be led by parishioner Michele and parishioner and therapist, Brian. We will meet in Faulkner Hall on Sunday November 7, 14, and 21 from 4 – 5:15 pm RSVPs on Facebook or by email to Michele (mmprout@gmail.com) required. Please also contact is given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Lucy Dorgan Heartwell and William Lightfoot Heartwell by their family.

Today's Altar Arrangement:

Michele if you have questions.

Advent-to-Go Bags:

November 28 10 am – 12:30 pm

On Sunday, November 28 from 10 am – 12:30 pm we will be distributing Advent-to-Go bags outside of Faulkner Hall. The bags include devotionals, Advent calendar, crafts, and materials to make your own Advent wreath. There are resources for families of all ages! Suggested donation is $10.

#GivingTuesday is November 30 – Support The Table

It's that time of year again when The Table participates in GivingTuesday, a global day of giving fueled by the power of social media and You!

On Tuesday, November 30, you will have the chance to make a difference in our community. The Table in Market Square serves our local community by providing fresh, healthy food to anyone who comes to us on Tuesdays. The fresh food goes to the elderly, the disabled, and people who are employed but need a supplemental source of healthy food. In addition to The Table in Market Square, once a month we provide fresh produce to 8 additional Table in the World Sites (TITW). We hope you will join us and be a part of this important work in our community.

Angel Tree

Our yearly ministry returns! St. George's offers gifts for children in our local schools whose families are unable to this Christmas season. Pick up a tag or a few on the First Sunday of Advent (Nov. 28), shop for your gifts, and return them wrapped with the tag clearly visible on Dec. 5 or 12.

Invitation to serve on St. George's vestry

We will elect four new members to the vestry at our annual meeting in January. We are looking for a slate of at least six persons willing to serve. A candidate must be a confirmed, adult (16+) member of the parish who contributes financially to the church and attends services regularly. We will be holding interest meetings in December via zoom for potential candidates. Dates to be announced. Contact Joe Hensley or a member of the vestry for additional information.

Winter Coat Drive

Please consider donating new or gently used jackets and coats, toddler through teen sizes, which will be provided to children in need at Hugh Mercer Elementary school. There is a box located in the narthex for winter coat donations. Donations will be collected on Sunday, December 12.

Commemorative Ornaments

To celebrate our 300th anniversary, we have limited edition, commemorative ornaments designed by a local artist. Purchase yours Nov. 28 from 10 am - 12:30 pm in Faulkner (with Advent-to-Go bags) and during the 10 am coffee hour on Dec. 5. Contact Marilyn Farrington (marilyn.farrington@gmail.com) if you'd like to purchase an ornament outside these times. Cost is $30 with all proceeds benefiting our Landmark Building Fund.

Helping our Afghan Allies

St. George's Afghan Allies Ministry, in partnership with Bethany Christian Services, is leading a clothing drive to support Afghan women and children refugees who have recently arrived in Virginia with only the clothes on their backs. While they are safe and awaiting resettlement, they are in need of coats, gloves, hats, and socks in Women's Small and Medium sizes and all Children's sizes. St. George's will be welcoming donations Sunday, November 14, 21, and 28 in the nave (the front entryway of the church).

300th Anniversary

Organ Concert with Erik William Suter

Today at 2:30 pm

As part of our 300th Anniversary celebrations, renowned organist Eric Wm. Suter will be performing a special concert in our nave. The concert is free with donations accepted at the door.

Erik Wm. Suter, a native of Chicago, is a musician of international acclaim. For nearly 10 years, he served as Organist at Washington National Cathedral in Washington, DC. He holds degrees from Oberlin Conservatory and Yale University, where he studied with Haskell Thomson and Thomas Murray, respectively. Previously, he held positions at Trinity Church, Copley Square, and at the Parish of All Saints, both in Boston; and at Trinity Church-on-the-Green in New Haven, Connecticut.
