We invite you to prepare for worship by observing silence or taking time for private prayer. We are glad you are here!

We welcome you to this service, whether you have been here often or if this is your first time. Please use this bulletin as your guide to participate. Please note the announcements about ways to connect and upcoming events. May this time of worship and prayer be a blessing to you.

Prelude

One minute of silence follows the prelude. Please rise or rise in spirit at the ringing of the bell.

Opening Reading: The grace and impatience to wait Walter Bruggeman
In our secret yearnings

we wait for your coming,
and in our grinding despair
we doubt that you will.

And in this privileged place

we are surrounded by witnesses who yearn more than do we and by those who despair more deeply than do we.

Give us the grace and the impatience to wait for your coming to the bottom of our toes,

to the edges of our finger tips.

Come in your power

and come in your weakness in any case

and make all things new. Amen.

Hymn 56 (St. 5,6): "O come, thou Key of David"

All invited to sing while wearing a mask

Veni, veni Emmanuel

Gather in God's Name

Opening sentences from Iona prayer book:

Officiant: In the quiet of this place;

People: We wait and watch;

Officiant: In the stillness of the soul;

People: Our hearts awaken to you;

Officiant: For new showings of light;

People: We search in your Spirit, O God.

Proclaim and Respond to the Word of God

The Reading from the Gospel

Luke 3:7 - 18

John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our ancestor'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire." And the crowds asked him, "What then should we do?" In reply he said to them, "Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise." Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?" He said to them, "Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you." Soldiers also asked him, "And we, what should we do?" He said to them, "Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages." As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, "I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire." So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is observed after the reading

Meditation

The Rev. William S. Dickinson

Two minutes of silence will follow.

Music for Meditation

Pray for the World and the Church

Please stand.

Officiant: Let us offer our prayers to God, pondering in our hearts, like Mary the mother of Jesus, what we are watching and waiting for in this season of Advent.

Prayer Leader 1: We pray for the Church throughout the world, its members and mission. What might we release in order to become the Church we are called to be?

Silence

Prayer Leader 2: We pray for our Diocese as we seek our next bishop. How will we seek the will of God as one church across Virginia?

Silence

Prayer Leader 1: We pray for our nation and all the nations of the earth, for our state, region, and localities, and all who hold authority that they may work for the health of all. What is the world we yearn to see, with God's help?

Silence

Prayer Leader 2: We pray for the well-being of the world, for all God's creatures and all that God has made. How might we embrace a sense of wonder at the beauty of God's creation? How might we learn from creation to wait in this season?

Silence

Prayer Leader 1: We lift up to God the concerns of our local community. Where are we to watch for the needs of others as we wait and work for restoration?

Silence

Prayer Leader 2: We ask God to heal us and all who suffer and be with all of us who are in any trouble. Who are the people we wish to name, silently or aloud?

Silence

Prayer Leader 1: We pray for those who have died and all who mourn their loss. As we wait for the coming of Christ, what sorrows and hopes for new life might we offer to God?

Silence

Officiant: Almighty God who has taught us to watch and wait with hopeful anticipation, hear our prayers as we look for the light that has come and is coming again into the world, our savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

If you like, please come forward during the music and light a candle as an embodied symbol of your prayer. Please help us to keep a bit of distance between one another.

Music for Meditation

"De noche iremos"

Taize

De noche iremos, de noche, que para encontrar la fuente.

Solo la sed nos alumbra, solo la sed nos alumbra.

Translation: By night, we hasten in darkness to search for living water.

Only our thirst leads us onwards

Officiant: Let us pray, alternating sides of the church, beginning on this side (lectern/north):

Lectern/north side: Eternal Spirit Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, Pulpit/south side: source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all.

Lectern: Loving God, in whom is heaven,

Pulpit: the hallowing of your name echo through the universe!

Lectern: The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth!

Pulpit: Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!

Lectern: Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

Pulpit: With the bread we need for today, feed us.

Lectern: In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.

Pulpit: In times of temptation and test, spare us.

Lectern: From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

Pulpit: For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever.

Amen.

Exchange the Peace

Officiant: Christ has broken down the dividing wall and has proclaimed peace and wholeness to those who were far off and to those who were near. My siblings, brothers, and sisters, the Peace of our Savior Jesus Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace with a wave or bow.

Prepare the Table

As we prepare to make Eucharist, the holy feast of thanksgiving and grace, we present ourselves and our gifts to God and remember that Jesus said, "Abide in my love...I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete."

It is a joy to gather together this evening, and we especially welcome anyone who is visiting or here for the first time. Please see more information in the bulletin notes and feel free to introduce yourself after the service. There are also printed instructions about receiving communion or a blessing.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. As the table is prepared, we invite you to consider a gift in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. Make your offering online (<http://bit.ly/stggive>), in the alms basin provided in the aisle, or by mail to the church. Please note the announcements at the rear of this bulletin. For the latest updates and messages of encouragement, check our website (StGeorgesEpiscopal.net) and subscribe to our email newsletter (<http://bit.ly/stggenews>).

Music for Meditation

Make Eucharist

Please stand.

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And with your spirit

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Holy Ruler of all creation.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds:

O God of mystery and promise, you invite us to discover you in the intimate places of ourselves and our lives. You invite us to discover you within the complexities of our humanity, in passionate and tender loving, in struggle and pain, in confusion and unknowing, in flashes of insight and wisdom. You also call us beyond ourselves to places of imagination, beyond the silent stars, in the deep rhythms of the ocean, in the unending cycles of day and night, seasons of life and death. With saints and ancestors, with the seas and earth and sky, with animals and birds, with our friends and those unknown to us, with all creation we join in the song of your unending glory:

Sanctus:

Mark A. Miller

all invited to sing while wearing a mask

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might. Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - - - - - ry.

— Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

The Celebrant proceeds:

We praise you that in Jesus Christ you make known to us the wonder and richness of our humanity. We give thanks for his life-giving love, for his healing touch, for his vulnerability and for his gentleness. Before he gave up his life, he shared his humanity, his flesh and blood with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks for it, broke it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me."

So too after they had eaten, he took wine, gave thanks for it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my blood, poured out in love for you. Do this to remember me."

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Come now, Spirit of God, come upon us and upon this bread and wine. Make us one body, food for the world, one blood to be poured out for the life of all. Touch us with your gentle creativity and fire us with longing for the new age of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus who gave his body that we might be one and his blood that we might find new life. With him, and through him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be to you, O God, all honor and glory forever. Amen.

Celebrant: I invite us to pray as Jesus taught his disciples:

People and Celebrant:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Break the Bread and Share the Gifts of God

"Emmanuel"

Ralph R. Stewart

all invited to sing while wearing a mask. Echo the cantor

Emmanuel, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Emmanuel, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Emmanuel, you take away the sins of the world,

grant us your peace, grant us your peace.

Celebrant: This is the table, not of the Church, but of our God.
It is made ready for those who love God and those who want to love more.
So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is God who invites you.
It is Love's will that those who want God should meet Love here.

Those who wish to receive communion may come forward when invited by an usher, staying single file and maintaining a generous distance. To receive the wafer of bread, the body of Christ, extend your open hands and we will gently drop a wafer into your hand without making contact. Gluten free wafers are available; just tell us of your need. Once you have received the wafer, hold it in your hand and return to your seat when you can briefly remove your mask and reverently consume the bread. If you do not wish to receive the bread and would like a blessing, come forward with you hands across your chest, and we will offer a blessing in the name of God.

Music during Communion

After Communion

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Please stand.

All: Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

Blessing

Celebrant: God's blessing be with you. Christ's peace be with you, the Spirit's outpouring be with you, now and always. Amen.

Hymn 679: "Surely it is God who saves me"

The Dismissal

Officiant: Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road and may God's blessing be upon you always. Amen. Source: Clare of Assisi
