Welcome to St. George's!

Whether you are worshipping online or in person, we are glad you are here.

Connect with Us

If you'd like to find out more about St. George's, please fill out an online Newcomer Card on our website at: bit.ly/stgnewcomer.

To stay up-to-date on the latest news and events, sign up for our weekly e-newsletter, The St. Georgian: bit.ly/stgnews.

Request Prayer

We share in each other's joys and concerns. Send us your prayer requests at: bit.ly/stgprayer.

Giving

Your generous gifts help fund our ministries and serve the community. In-person donations are welcomed at one of the collection plates in the entryway or in the aisle. You can make a one-time or recurring gift electronically or text to give (send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133). You can also mail a check to the church office. Thank you!

Your Gifts at Work

Recently, your gifts have helped:

- Share the Love of God with all at Pride
- Celebrate two baptisms at Pentecost.

The Fifth Sunday after Pentecost July 10, 2022

---

from the red Book of Common Prayer
(BCP), Enriching Our Worship, and forms of prayer from around the world.

We invite you to prepare for worship by observing silence or taking time for private prayer. We are glad you are here!

We welcome you to this service, whether you have been here often or if this is your first time. Please use this bulletin as your guide to participate. Please note the announcements about ways to connect and upcoming events. May this time of worship and prayer be a blessing to you.

Prelude

One minute of silence follows the prelude. Please rise or rise in spirit at the ringing of the bell.

Opening Reading: "The Good Samaritan"

Malcolm Guite

How do we hear again the force of this,
Since 'Good Samaritan' slips off the tongue
As comfortable a phrase as any is,
Worn smooth because we've heard it so long?
Who is my neighbor? We don't need to ask,
We know that we already know the answer,
We know the duty but we shun the task.
Fear of the other grips us like a pincer:
What if they crossed our path, these refugees?
Who'd meet the cost when needs just multiply?
We fear these questions and our spirits freeze,
It's easier to turn and walk on by.
Cross over to us, whose dark paths are crossed,
Samaritan, whose cross defrays all cost.

Hymn 304: "I come with joy"

Land of Rest

Gather in God's Name

A Prayer for the Evening

Officiant: Move among us, O God, give us life.

All: Let your people rejoice in you.

Officiant: Make our hearts clean within us.

All: Renew us in mind, body and spirit.

Officiant: Give us again the joy of your help.

All: With your spirit of freedom sustain us.

Officiant: O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Proclaim and Respond to the Word of God

The Reading from the Gospel

Luke 10:25 - 37

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live." But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.' Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is observed after the reading

Meditation

Pray for the World and the Church

Please stand.

Prayers for Ourselves and Others Please stand.

Officiant: Let us pray for ourselves and others.

Leader 1: We pray for all who work through the power of Christ, serving the needs of the poor and healing the wounds of injustice, division and materialism in our society.

Officiant: God of new life,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader 2: We pray for the elderly, the sick and the lonely among us: that they may receive comfort, companionship and care from those around them.

Officiant: God of new life,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader 1: We pray that those who have been persecuted or seriously wronged by others may experience warmth and love with Christ, and be able to forgive those who have hurt them.

Officiant: God of new life,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader 2: We pray that when we are discouraged, we may find strength in the signs of a loving and faithful God in those around us, and the joy of the Holy Spirit within us.

Officiant: God of new life,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader 1: We pray for those whom we love but see no longer, those who have gone beyond the veil of this mortal life, that their souls and the souls of all the departed may rest in peace.

Officiant: God of new life,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader 2: We pray for all who have asked for our prayers and for those who have no one to pray for them.

Officiant: God of new life,

All: Hear our prayer.

Officiant: Great Spirit God, we give you thanks for another day on this earth. We give you thanks for this day to enjoy the compassionate goodness of you, our Creator. We acknowledge with one mind our respect and gratefulness to all the sacred cycle of life. Bind us together in the circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and one another. Amen.

If you like, please come forward during the music and light a candle as an embodied symbol of your prayer. Please help us to keep a bit of distance between one another.

Music for Meditation

"Come and fill"

Taize

Come and fill our hearts with your peace. You alone O Lord are holy.
Come and fill our hearts with your peace, alleluia!

Officiant: Let us pray, alternating sides of the church, beginning on this side (lectern/north):

Lectern/north side: Eternal Spirit Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver,
Pulpit/south side: source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all.

Lectern: Loving God, in whom is heaven,
Pulpit: the hallowing of your name echo through the universe!

Lectern: The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth!
Pulpit: Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!

Lectern: Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.
Pulpit: With the bread we need for today, feed us.

Lectern: In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
Pulpit: In times of temptation and test, spare us.

Lectern: From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
Pulpit: For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever.
Amen.

Exchange the Peace

Officiant: Christ has broken down the dividing wall and has proclaimed peace and wholeness to those who were far off and to those who were near. My siblings, brothers, and sisters, the Peace of our Savior Jesus Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace with a wave or bow.

Prepare the Table

As we prepare to make Eucharist, the holy feast of thanksgiving and grace, we present ourselves and our gifts to God and remember that Jesus said, "Abide in my love...I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete."

It is a joy to gather together this evening, and we especially welcome anyone who is visiting or here for the first time. Please see more information in the bulletin notes and feel free to introduce yourself after the service. There are also printed instructions about receiving communion or a blessing.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. As the table is prepared, we invite you to consider a gift in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. Make your offering online (<http://bit.ly/stggive>), in the alms basin provided in the aisle, or by mail to the church. Please note the announcements at the rear of this bulletin. For the latest updates and messages of encouragement, check our website (StGeorgesEpiscopal.net) and subscribe to our email newsletter (<http://bit.ly/stgenews>).

Music for Meditation

Make Eucharist Please stand.

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And with your spirit

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Holy Ruler of all creation.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds:

O God of mystery and promise, you invite us to discover you in the intimate places of ourselves and our lives. You invite us to discover you within the complexities of our humanity, in passionate and tender loving, in struggle and pain, in confusion and unknowing, in flashes of insight and wisdom. You also call us beyond ourselves to places of imagination, beyond the silent stars, in the deep rhythms of the ocean, in the unending cycles of day and night, seasons of life and death. With saints and ancestors, with the seas and earth and sky, with animals and birds, with our friends and those unknown to us, with all creation we join in the song of your unending glory:

---

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant proceeds:

We praise you that in Jesus Christ you make known to us the wonder and richness of our humanity. We give thanks for his life-giving love, for his healing touch, for his vulnerability and for his gentleness. Before he gave up his life, he shared his humanity, his flesh and blood with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks for it, broke it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me."

So too after they had eaten, he took wine, gave thanks for it and gave it to them saying:

Together

"This is my blood, poured out in love for you. Do this to remember me."

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Come now, Spirit of God, come upon us and upon this bread and wine. Make us one body, food for the world, one blood to be poured out for the life of all. Touch us with your gentle creativity and fire us with longing for the new age of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus who gave his body that we might be one and his blood that we might find new life. With him, and through him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be to you, O God, all honor and glory forever. Amen.

Celebrant: I invite us to pray as Jesus taught his disciples:

People and Celebrant:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

---

Break the Bread and Share the Gifts of God

"There is a longing"

Anne Quigley

There is a longing in our hearts, O Lord, for you to reveal yourself to us.

There is a longing in our hearts for love we only find in you, O God.

Celebrant: This is the table, not of the Church, but of our God. It is made ready for those who love God and those who want to love more. So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is God who invites you. It is Love's will that those who want God should meet Love here.

Those who wish to receive communion may come forward when invited by an usher, staying single file and maintaining a generous distance. To receive the wafer of bread, the body of Christ, extend your open hands and we will gently drop a wafer into your hand without making contact. Gluten free wafers are available; just tell us of your need. Once you have received the wafer, return to your seat when you can briefly remove your mask and reverently consume the bread. If you do not wish to receive the bread and would like a blessing, come forward with your hands across your chest.

Music during Communion

After Communion

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Please stand.

All: Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

The Blessing

And now may the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing, that we may abound in hope in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Go into the World

Hymn 529: "In Christ there is no east or west"

McKee

---

The Dismissal

Officiant: Go into the world in peace, have courage, hold on to what is good, return no one evil for evil, strengthen the faint-hearted, support the weak, help the suffering, honor everyone, love and serve God, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People: Thanks be to God.

Need a Nametag?

Help others put a name to your beautiful face! Pick up your nametag in the narthex and wear on Sundays. If you need a nametag, please contact Jan: (jan.meredith@stgeorgesepiscopal.net).

Joy in the Morning

Plans for our annual Parish Weekend at Shrine Mont are well underway! We will gather in the mountains on October 7-9, 2022. Our programming this year will include reflecting on ways to rediscover our Joy after dealing with the pandemic for 2.5+ years, as well as our much loved traditions of Game Night, Bonfire, and Worship in the Shrine. We need to give our firm count to Shrine Mont in early July. The deadline to register was July 5, but you can still join the wait list. Please email Danielle to be added to the list:
danielle@stgeorgesepiscopal.net.
