Whether you are worshipping online or in person, we are glad you are here. We hope you will find comfort in the beauty of the worship and encouragement in your personal faith journey.

New to St. George's?

Thank you for joining us today!

You can use this bulletin to follow along with the worship service. We use liturgies based in the red Book of Common Prayer. Hymns are from the blue Hymnal 1982 and green Wonder, Love, and Praise. All are located in your pew. Watch fellow worshippers for when to stand or sit, and please only do what is comfortable for you. We'd love to get to know you and help get you connected with our parish ministries, formation, and fellowship groups.

Families with children: Nursery services are available during the 10 am service in our nursery room (in the office hallway, one level below the main church).

Please see an usher or greeter for directions.

Visit StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/connect or scan the QR code and we'll be in touch. You can also fill out the Newcomer Card in your pew and drop it in the offering plate. We welcome the chance to meet you!

Thank You for Your Generous Gifts!

Your financial gifts fund our ministries so we may show the Love of God to all. This month your gifts have helped:

- Nurture faith and community among college students and young adults through The House FXBG, a shared ministry of St. George's, Trinity Episcopal, and Christ Lutheran Churches.
- Sustain our ministries of pastoral care by clergy and lay persons, offering spiritual and emotional support as a sign of God's grace.

You can make a financial gift:

- In-person: place gift in collection plate in the aisle.
- Online - one-time or recurring:

StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/giving. Or scan the QR code.

- Text: Send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133)
 - Automated bank withdrawal (contact our parish finance manager, Kevin Carey, to arrange this)

Walking Together

Pastoral Care at St. George's is a ministry of the clergy and the laity. By walking with each other through times of joy and times of sorrow, the love of Christ is revealed.

Prayer Ministers are available to pray with you during our worship services and outside of worship times on the phone. Our Prayer Group provides intercessory prayer weekly. Our One Body Response Team (OBRT) offers prayers, sends cards, and responds to other needs as able.

Lay Eucharistic Visitors (LEVs) are available to bring Holy Communion to the homebound.

Our Wednesday Noon Eucharist service in the nave includes prayers for healing and anointing.

Prayer Shawls are available upon request. These mantles of healing and comfort are made by our ministry teams.

If you need support or encouragement, please consider reaching out to our church office (540.373.4133; office@stgeorgesepiscopal.net). You may also contact clergy directly to make an appointment.

If you have a pastoral care emergency (death, serious illness, or other crisis) and need to speak with clergy, please call or text 540.361.8573 to reach clergy on call.

Land and Labor Acknowledgment

We give thanks for the land which God created as a precious gift. We honor the Indigenous peoples who long knew the land of our parish more than 10,000 years before it was established over 300 years ago, including the Patowomeck and Rappahannock Tribes who still live here. Please see our website for the full text of our land acknowledgement.

We also honor the people of African descent whose enslaved labor supported the parish for the first half of its history. Rooted in the Gospel, repentant of sin, we are nurturing faith and seeking justice, healing, and repair of relationships amid the complexity of our times.

The Fourth Sunday after Pentecost June 21, 2026

from the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), Enriching Our Worship, and forms of prayer from around the world.

We invite you to prepare for worship by observing silence or taking time for private prayer. Please take a moment to silence cell phones and alarms. We are glad you are here! We welcome you to this service, whether you have been here often or if this is your first time. Please use this bulletin as your guide to participate. Please note the announcements about ways to connect and upcoming events. May this time of worship and prayer be a blessing to you.

Opening Poem: Dance of life

Elizabeth Baxter

We name ourselves
in the dance of life.
As a butterfly flutters from hidden space,
so we are freed from hiding.
As flowers stand tall,
each with dignity,
together in solidarity,
so they call us to do the same.
We can come out
to be ourselves,
to play with others,
to enter into our becoming,
to dance new steps,
feeling grass on bare feet
and softness of skin.
Playful God,
hues of colour
evoke our senses,
branches wave to us
calling us to dance.
Release us from our fears,
renew our energies
and restore our joy.

Opening Hymn WLP 773: "Heal me, hands of Jesus"

Sharpe

Gather in God's Name

Celebrant: Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People: Glory to God for ever and ever.

A Prayer for the Evening

Officiant: Spirit Divine, attend our prayers,

All: And make this house your home.

Officiant: Descend with all your gracious powers,

All: O come, great Spirit, come!

Officiant: Almighty and most merciful God, grant that by the indwelling of your Holy Spirit, we may be enlightened and strengthened for your service; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Proclaim and Respond to the Word of God

The Reading from the Gospel

Matthew 10:24-39

Jesus said to the twelve disciples, "A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household! "So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows. "Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven. "Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. "For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and one's foes will be members of one's own household. "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it."

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is observed after the reading

Meditation

Two minutes of silence will follow.

The Rev. Dr. Lynn Collins

Pray for the World and the Church

Officiant: We pray for God to fill us with the Holy Spirit.

Leader 1: Generous God, we thank you for the power of your Holy Spirit. We ask that we may be strengthened to serve you better.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 2: We thank you for the wisdom of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to bless your Church, and make us wise to understand your will.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 1: We thank you for the peace of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to keep us confident to work for peace in the world.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 2: We thank you for the healing of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to bring reconciliation and wholeness where there is division, sickness and sorrow.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 1: We thank you for the gifts of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to equip us for the work which you have given us in Fredericksburg and beyond.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 2: We thank you for the fruit of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to reveal in our lives the love of Jesus, and we bring to you our own prayers:

The people offer their prayers and thanksgivings.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 1: We thank you for the breath of your Holy Spirit, given us by the risen Christ. We ask you to keep the whole Church, living and departed, in the joy of eternal life.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Officiant: Generous God, you sent your Holy Spirit upon your Messiah at the river Jordan, and upon the disciples in the upper room: in your mercy fill us with your Spirit,

People: hear our prayer, and make us one in heart and mind to serve you with joy for ever. Amen.

Prayer for Father's Day said by the Celebrant

Gracious God, you made us in your image and gave us power to help create life. In human fatherhood we see a reflection of your divine blessing and care. Make us thankful for our life and for all fathers and father figures whose work has blessed us. Comfort those for whom this is a day of sorrow or struggle. Help us continue to pray with all the holy mothers and fathers in the communion of saints, praising you in glory everlasting. Amen.

If you like, please come forward during the music and light a candle as an embodied symbol of your prayer. The clergy is available to pray with you, or to take special prayer requests during this time.

"The Lord is my song"

Taizé

The Lord is my song, the Lord is my praise: All my hope comes from God.

The Lord is my song, the Lord is my praise: God, the well-spring of life.

in unison

Eternal Spirit Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all. Loving God, in whom is heaven, the hallowing of your name echo through the universe! The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth! Your heavenly will be done by all created beings! Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

Officiant: Living God, long ago, your Holy Spirit descended upon the followers of Jesus, and they shared the Good News in powerful and surprising ways. May the Holy Spirit, your Wild Goose, inspire us as we share your love with all. Amen.¹

Exchange the Peace

Christ, the Good Shepherd, binds us with a bond of love that cannot be broken. My sisters and brothers, the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace.

¹ Celtic Christian tradition embraces the image of the Holy Spirit as a wild, rambunctious goose, symbolizing the Spirit's powerful and unpredictable nature.

Prepare the Table

As we prepare to make Eucharist, the holy feast of thanksgiving and grace, we present ourselves and our gifts to God and remember that Jesus said, "Abide in my love...I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete."

It is a joy to gather together this evening, and we especially welcome anyone who is visiting or here for the first time. Please see more information in the bulletin notes and feel free to introduce yourself after the service. There are also printed instructions about receiving communion or a blessing. Praise God from whom all blessings flow. As the table is prepared, we invite you to consider a gift in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. Make your offering online (<http://bit.ly/stggive>), in the alms basin provided in the aisle, or by mail to the church. Please note the announcements at the rear of this bulletin. For the latest updates and messages of encouragement, check our website (StGeorgesEpiscopal.net) and subscribe to our email newsletter (<http://bit.ly/stgenews>).

A Celtic Service Communion Prayer² Please stand.

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the holy ruler of all creation.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant gives thanks to God for the work of creation and the revelation of God to God's people.

It is right and good to give you thanks O Most High, Mother, Father, Author of all Creation. With Holy Sophia, your Wisdom, in the beginning you founded the heavens and the earth. You planted a garden and placed your human children there, made from the mud, and breathed your Spirit into them. Through your chosen prophets, you revealed your will, the best ways for your people to live in covenant with you and one another. When they wandered in the wilderness and missed the mark, your mercy eclipsed your wrath. After they sojourned in exile, you prepared a way to come home. And so we join with the angels and the holy ones through the ages, resounding with rivers clapping their hands and hills in joyful song, all proclaiming your glory, as we sing:

Sanctus

Mark A. Miller

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might. Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry.
 — Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho -
 - san - na in the high - est! Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

The Celebrant now praises God for the salvation of the world through Jesus Christ our Savior.

O God, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent Jesus, your only Son, to be our Savior, fully human and fully divine. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, he was born of your servant, Mary, and lived as one of us. To those in poverty, he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Recalling now his suffering and death, and celebrating his resurrection and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

Accept, O God, our sacrifice of praise, this memorial of our redemption.

Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts. Let them be for us the Body and Blood of your Son. And grant that we who eat this bread and drink this cup may be filled with your life and goodness.

The Celebrant then prays that all may receive the benefits of Christ's work, and the renewal of the Holy Spirit.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us to renew us, that we may receive the benefits of Christ's work in heart, mind, body, and soul.

All this we ask through our Savior Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: As Jesus taught his disciples, we now pray,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Break the Bread

Fraction Anthem: WLP 875

Gary James

CANTOR, THEN CONGREGATION

Be known to us Lord Je-sus in the break-ing of the

1. bread. 2. Be The bread which we break al - le - lu - ia___ is the com-mun-ion of the bod - y of Christ. Be known to us Lord Je-sus in the break-ing of the bread. One bod - y are we, al-le - lu - ia, for though man-y we share one bread. Be known to us Lord Je-sus in the break-ing of the bread.

The musical score is written in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time. It features a cantor part and a congregation part. The lyrics are: "Be known to us Lord Je-sus in the break-ing of the bread. Be The bread which we break al - le - lu - ia___ is the com-mun-ion of the bod - y of Christ. Be known to us Lord Je-sus in the break-ing of the bread. One bod - y are we, al-le - lu - ia, for though man-y we share one bread. Be known to us Lord Je-sus in the break-ing of the bread." The score includes first and second endings for the first line of the cantor part.

Celebrant: This is the table, not simply of the church, but of Christ our savior. It is made ready for those who love Christ and those who want to love more. So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is Christ who invites you. It is God's will that those who wish should meet the love of Christ here.

All are welcome to participate in Communion, either by receiving the Sacrament or receiving a blessing. Communion is the sacramental body and blood of Jesus Christ received in bread and wine blessed by the Holy Spirit.

- Proceed forward toward the communion ministers when prompted (notify an usher if you need to receive at your seat).
 - To receive the bread, hold your hands out, palms up.
 - To receive the wine, sip from the cup (a.k.a. chalice) or point to the cup for the bread to be dipped by the minister.
 - Gluten-free? Hold your hands palms down, then take the wafer from the separate container when offered. Ask for the gluten-free cup if preferred.
 - To receive a blessing (prayed by the minister), cross your arms over your chest.
- Receiving just the bread or just the wine is a full and valid participation.*

For more information about participation in the sacraments of Holy Communion or Holy Baptism, contact the clergy.

Music during Communion: Lament for Iain Cockburn

Hector MacAndrew

Prayer After Communion Please stand.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Savior Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

Annual Ecumenical Pride Service - June 28

Join with our FXBG friends and denominational partners for the fourth annual Pride Service on Sunday June 28, 4 pm at Trinity Episcopal Church. The service will feature three reflections by three young adults, music by St. Georgian and newly ordained deacon the Rev. John Hager, and a festive reception across the street at The House. If you'd like to help with the reception, join the pop-up choir or if you have any questions, please be in touch with Fr. Ethan at missioner@thehousefxbg.org.

New Children's Bulletins

Be on the lookout for the new Children's Bulletin which will now be available every Sunday. This bulletin has several great features for children to use during worship. After worship, feel free to take the Children's Bulletin home and talk with your child about worship during the week. You can use the bulletin to help your child learn the Lord's Prayer, the Nicene Creed and the words to hymns. Your child can continue coloring the various pages, leading to more conversations about Sunday's scriptures, what we do in church every Sunday and why we worship the way we do.

Today's Altar Arrangement:

The altar arrangement is given in loving memory of Decca Gilmer Frackelton and Robert Leigh Frackelton by their children, Nick, Mary Carter, Leigh and David, arranged by Flower Guild member Shelby Gleason.

Summer Pop Culture Sermon Series

Starting on June 28 we will begin our Pop Culture Sermon Series. Sunday mornings will include references to popular movies over the years. Each preacher has selected a movie that goes with their sermon, and then on the following Tuesday we will screen the movie in Sydnor Hall. The movies that will be discussed are:

- June 28 - To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything! Julie Newmar (PG-13)
- July 5 - Mr. Smith Goes to Washington (G)
- July 12 - Contact (PG)
- July 19 - Toy Story (G)

Summer Movie Nights at St. George's

On Tuesdays, June 30 through July 21 we will be holding a movie screening of the movie from our Pop Culture series. Join us in Sydnor Hall. The movies will begin promptly at 6:30, and popcorn will be provided. Feel free to bring dinner if that helps save time, and if you want, a blanket or sleeping bag to stretch out on the floor. See the list above for the ratings for each of the movies. We hope that you will join us. There will be a nursery provided for our younger children for all of the nights.

Vacation Bible School Music Camp – July 20-24, 2026

There's still time to sign up for VBS! Join us July 20-24 for what will be a splendid week of fun, fellowship, crafts, and music! Any children, rising K-6, are welcome to join us. Scan the QR code to register.
