Whether you are worshiping online or in person, we are glad you are here. We hope you will find comfort in the beauty of the worship and encouragement in your personal faith journey.

New to St. George's?

Thank you for joining us today! You can use this bulletin to follow along with the worship service. We use liturgies based in the red Book of Common Prayer. Hymns are from the blue Hymnal 1982 and green Wonder, Love, and Praise. All are located in your pew. Watch fellow worshipers for when to stand or sit, and please only do what is comfortable for you. We'd love to get to know you and help get you connected with our parish ministries, formation, and fellowship groups.

Families with children: Nursery services are also available during the 10 am service in our nursery room (in the office hallway, one level below the main church). Please see an usher or greeter for directions.

Visit StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/connect or scan the QR code and we'll be in touch.

You can also fill out the Newcomer Card in your pew and drop it in the offering plate. We welcome the chance to meet you!

Thank You for Your Generous Gifts!

Your financial gifts fund our ministries so we may show the Love of God to all. This month your gifts have helped:

- bear witness to God's love and the God-given dignity of every human being at local events for Juneteenth and Pride.
- share food and community with neighbors at Monday evening Community Dinners

You can make a financial gift:

- In-person: place gift in collection plate in the aisle.
- Online - one-time or recurring:

StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/giving. Or scan the QR code.

- Text: Send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: 540.701.4133)
 - Automated bank withdrawal (contact our parish finance manager, Kevin Carey, to arrange this)
 - Paypal: www.paypal.com/paypalme/stgeorgesfxbg

Walking Together

Pastoral Care at St. George's is a ministry of the clergy and the laity. By walking with each other through times of joy and times of sorrow, the love of Christ is revealed.

Prayer Ministers are available to pray with you during our worship services and outside of worship times on the phone. Our Prayer Group provides intercessory prayer weekly. Our One Body Response Team (OBRT) offers prayers, sends cards, and responds to other needs as able.

Lay Eucharistic Visitors (LEVs) are available to bring Holy Communion to the homebound.

Our Wednesday Noon Eucharist service in the nave includes prayers for healing and anointing.

Prayer Shawls are available upon request. These mantles of healing and comfort are made by our ministry teams.

If you need support or encouragement, please consider reaching out to our church office (540.373.4133; office@stgeorgesepiscopal.net). You may also contact clergy directly to make an appointment.

If you have a pastoral care emergency (death, serious illness, or other crisis) and need to speak with clergy, please call or text 540.361.8573 to reach clergy on call.

Land and Labor Acknowledgment

We give thanks for the land which God created as a precious gift. We honor the Indigenous peoples who long knew the land of our parish more than 10,000 years before it was established over 300 years ago, including the Patowomeck and Rappahannock Tribes who still live here. Please see our website for the full text of our land acknowledgement.

We also honor the people of African descent whose enslaved labor supported the parish for the first half of its history. Rooted in the Gospel, repentant of sin, we are nurturing faith and seeking justice, healing, and repair of relationships amid the complexity of our times.

The Ninth Sunday after Pentecost July 26, 2026

from the red Book of Common Prayer
(BCP), Enriching Our Worship, and forms of prayer from around the world.

We invite you to prepare for worship by observing silence or taking time for private prayer. Please take a moment to silence cell phones and alarms. We are glad you are here!

We welcome you to this service, whether you have been here often or if this is your first time. Please use this bulletin as your guide to participate. Please note the announcements about ways to connect and upcoming events. May this time of worship and prayer be a blessing to you.

Traditional Welsh

One minute of silence follows the prelude. Please rise or rise in spirit at the ringing of the bell.

Opening Poem: "A prayer for ourselves"
May God
who is our maker and keeper
bless us today.

Ruth Burgess

May Jesus
who understands tears and laughter
bless us today.

May the Holy Spirit
who comforts and challenges
bless us today.

May the angels
who are full of power and glory
bless us today.

May the little ones
who pull at our hearts and our shirtsleeves
bless us today.

May the saints
who are more like us than we can ever imagine
bless us today.

Today,
tomorrow,
all our nights,
all our days,
may we know God's blessing.
May we know that we are deeply loved.

Opening Hymn 711: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God"

Seek Ye First

Gather in God's Name

Celebrant: Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People: Glory to God for ever and ever.

A Prayer for the Evening

Officiant: Spirit Divine, attend our prayers,

All: And make this house your home.

Officiant: Descend with all your gracious powers,

All: O come, great Spirit, come!

Officiant: Almighty and most merciful God, grant that by the indwelling of your Holy Spirit, we may be enlightened and strengthened for your service; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Proclaim and Respond to the Word of God

The Reading from the Gospel

Matthew 13:31-33,44-52

Jesus put before the crowds another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches." He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened." "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it. "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. "Have you understood all this?" They answered, "Yes." And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old."

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is observed after the reading

Meditation

The Rev. Rock Higgins

Two minutes of silence will follow.

Music for Meditation: Farewell

Pray for the World and the Church

Officiant: We pray for God to fill us with the Holy Spirit.

Leader 1: Generous God, we thank you for the power of your Holy Spirit. We ask that we may be strengthened to serve you better.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 2: We thank you for the wisdom of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to bless your Church, and make us wise to understand your will.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 1: We thank you for the peace of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to keep us confident to work for peace in the world.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 2: We thank you for the healing of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to bring reconciliation and wholeness where there is division, sickness and sorrow.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 1: We thank you for the gifts of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to equip us for the work which you have given us in Fredericksburg and beyond.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 2: We thank you for the fruit of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to reveal in our lives the love of Jesus, and we bring to you our own prayers:

The people offer their prayers and thanksgivings.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Leader 1: We thank you for the breath of your Holy Spirit, given us by the risen Christ. We ask you to keep the whole Church, living and departed, in the joy of eternal life.

Officiant: Holy One, come to bless us

People: and fill us with your Spirit.

Officiant: Generous God, you sent your Holy Spirit upon your Messiah at the river Jordan, and upon the disciples in the upper room: in your mercy fill us with your Spirit,

People: hear our prayer, and make us one in heart and mind to serve you with joy for ever. Amen.

If you like, please come forward during the music and light a candle as an embodied symbol of your prayer. The clergy is available to pray with you, or to take special prayer requests during this time.

"Come and fill"

Taizé

Come and fill our hearts with your peace. You alone O Lord are holy.
Come and fill our hearts with your peace, alleluia!

in unison

Eternal Spirit Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all. Loving God, in whom is heaven, the hallowing of your name echo through the universe! The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth! Your heavenly will be done by all created beings! Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

Officiant: Living God, long ago, your Holy Spirit descended upon the followers of Jesus, and they shared the Good News in powerful and surprising ways. May the Holy Spirit, your Wild Goose, inspire us as we share your love with all.
Amen.¹

Exchange the Peace

Christ, the Good Shepherd, binds us with a bond of love that cannot be broken. My sisters and brothers, the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace.

Prepare the Table

As we prepare to make Eucharist, the holy feast of thanksgiving and grace, we present ourselves and our gifts to God and remember that Jesus said, "Abide in my love...I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete."

It is a joy to gather together this evening, and we especially welcome anyone who is visiting or here for the first time. Please see more information in the bulletin notes and feel free to introduce yourself after the service. There are also printed instructions about receiving communion or a blessing. Praise God from whom all blessings flow. As the table is prepared, we invite you to consider a gift in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. Make your offering online (<http://bit.ly/stggive>), in the alms basin provided in the aisle, or by mail to the church. Please note the announcements at the rear of this bulletin. For the latest updates and messages of encouragement, check our website (StGeorgesEpiscopal.net) and subscribe to our email newsletter (<http://bit.ly/stgenews>).

A Celtic Service Communion Prayer² Please stand.

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the holy ruler of all creation.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant gives thanks to God for the work of creation and the revelation of God to God's people.

It is right and good to give you thanks O Most High, Mother, Father, Author of all Creation. With Holy Sophia, your Wisdom, in the beginning you founded the heavens and the earth. You planted a garden and placed your human children there, made from the mud, and breathed your Spirit into them. Through your chosen prophets, you revealed your will, the best ways for your people to live in covenant with you and one another. When they wandered in the wilderness and missed the mark, your mercy eclipsed your wrath. After they sojourned in exile, you prepared a way to come home. And so we join with the angels and the holy ones through the ages, resounding with rivers clapping their hands and hills in joyful song, all proclaiming your glory, as we sing:

high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

The Celebrant now praises God for the salvation of the world through Jesus Christ our Savior.

O God, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent Jesus, your only Son, to be our Savior, fully human and fully divine. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, he was born of your servant, Mary, and lived as one of us. To those in poverty, he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Recalling now his suffering and death, and celebrating his resurrection and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

Accept, O God, our sacrifice of praise, this memorial of our redemption.

Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts. Let them be for us the Body and Blood of your Son. And grant that we who eat this bread and drink this cup may be filled with your life and goodness.

The Celebrant then prays that all may receive the benefits of Christ's work, and the renewal of the Holy Spirit.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us to renew us, that we may receive the benefits of Christ's work in heart, mind, body, and soul.

All this we ask through our Savior Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: As Jesus taught his disciples, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

bread. Be known to us Lord Je-sus in the break-ing of the bread.

Celebrant: This is the table, not simply of the church, but of Christ our savior. It is made ready for those who love Christ and those who want to love more. So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is Christ who invites you. It is God's will that those who wish should meet the love of Christ here.

All are welcome to participate in Communion, either by receiving the Sacrament or receiving a blessing. Communion is the sacramental body and blood of Jesus Christ received in bread and wine blessed by the Holy Spirit.

- Proceed forward toward the communion ministers when prompted (notify an usher if you need to receive at your seat).
- To receive the bread, hold your hands out, palms up.
- To receive the wine, sip from the cup (a.k.a. chalice) or point to the cup for the bread to be dipped by the minister.
- Gluten-free? Hold your hands palms down, then take the wafer from the separate container when offered. Ask for the gluten-free cup if preferred.
- To receive a blessing (prayed by the minister), cross your arms over your chest.

Receiving just the bread or just the wine is a full and valid participation.

For more information about participation in the sacraments of Holy Communion or Holy Baptism, contact the clergy.

Music during Communion: 'S beag mo shunnd ris a' chadal Scottish Melody

Prayer After Communion Please stand.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Savior Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

Go into the World

The Blessing

Closing Hymn 635: "If thou but trust in God to guide thee" Wer nur den lieben Gott

The Dismissal

Officiant: Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Wild Goose, the Holy Spirit!

All: Thanks be to God.

VBS Music Camp Performs: The Lost Boy Today

Join us today during the 10 am worship service to see the St. George's Vacation Bible School and Music Camp perform The Lost Boy, a fun and jazzy retelling of Jesus being lost in the temple. This week our VBS has been in full swing with bible stories, crafts and music. They have been hard at work learning the music and lyrics to this fun musical retelling of Luke 2:41-52. Come see what they've been up to during the 10 am service. Special thanks to our Director of Children's Music, Julian Jones, as well as our other adult leaders and volunteers. It's been a fun week!

Farewell Coffee Hour for Father Rock

Today we bid farewell to our Interim Associate Rector, the Rev. Rock Higgins. Following the 10 am service, please join us in Sydnor Hall for a special coffee hour as we celebrate his ministry among us and give thanks for the many gifts he has shared with our congregation. We send him with our blessings and heartfelt gratitude for his faithful service, leadership, and dedication during his time with us. We wish him every blessing in the next chapter of his journey.

Today's Altar Arrangement:

The altar arrangement is given in loving memory of my husband Jim Pierce by Karen Pierce, arranged by Flower Guild member Sarah Bass.

Save the Date: Worshipalooza

Saturday, August 15 10 am - 2 pm

Plan now for our annual day of trainings for worship ministry leaders: lectors and intercessors, ushers and greeters, acolytes, livestream technicians, Eucharistic ministers, and more. A detailed schedule will be announced at the end of July. We invite children, youth, and adults to be trained and help us lead worship!

Volunteers Needed for 2026 School Dressing Days

It takes an amazing team of volunteers to help make School Dressing Days a success, and we'd love for you to be part of it! Help provide students with the clothing and essentials they need to begin the school year feeling prepared, confident, and ready to learn. Every volunteer helps create a welcoming experience for local families. Scan the QR code to sign up. Choose the shift that works best for you and invite a friend to serve alongside you!

Evening Bible Study Series with Fr.

Frank Uwaezuoke

Join our new Priest Associate, the Rev. Frank Uwaezuoke, on four Tuesdays (July 28, August 4, 11, 18) for an exploration of scripture and culture. This Bible study theme "The Body of Christ: I Am Because We Are" (Ubuntu), draws on the wisdom of the African Church and the witness of Scripture. Meets in Faulkner Hall from 6 - 7:30 pm.

Beautiful Music in a Beautiful Space

Announcing Our 2026-2027 Concert Series

We're excited to share the lineup for our 2026–2027 Concert Series! This season features returning favorites Peter and Will Anderson, Becky and Slam, Scary Music for Organ, and Christmas at St. George's, along with exciting newcomers including Vox Humana and the Alma Ensemble*'s Boundless: Music by Inspiring Women.

As always, all concerts are offered free of charge. If you would like to help us continue sharing beautiful music in a beautiful space with our community, please consider making a donation. Every gift helps sustain this ministry and keep music accessible to all.

This concert is supported, in part, by the Virginia Commission for the Arts, which receives support from the Virginia General Assembly.*
