Whether you are worshipping online or in person, we are glad you are here. We hope you will find comfort in the beauty of the worship and encouragement in your personal faith journey.

New to St. George's?

Thank you for joining us today! You can use this bulletin to follow along with the worship service. We use liturgies based in the red Book of Common Prayer. Hymns are from the blue Hymnal 1982 and green Wonder, Love, and Praise. All are located in your pew. Watch fellow worshipers for when to stand or sit, and please only do what is comfortable for you. We'd love to get to know you and help get you connected with our parish ministries, formation, and fellowship groups.

Visit StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/connect or scan the QR code and we'll be in touch. You can also fill out the Newcomer Card in your pew and drop it in the offering plate. We welcome the chance to meet you!

Thank You for Your Generous Gifts! Your financial gifts fund our ministries so we may show the Love of God to all.

This month your gifts have helped:

- Offer to college students a welcoming community and space to explore faith through The House FXBG ministry, led by Fr. Ethan, that we share with Trinity Episcopal and Christ Lutheran that has now expanded to include the ecumenical Campus Christian Center.
- Encourage growth in Christian faith and discipleship through our formation and education offerings to adults, youth, and children.

You can make a financial gift:

- In-person: place gift in collection plate in the aisle or when passed by the ushers
- Online - one-time or recurring: StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/giving.
Or scan the QR code.
- Text: Send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to: (540.701.4133)
- Automated bank withdrawal (contact our parish finance manager, Kevin Carey, to arrange this)
- Paypal: www.paypal.com/paypalme/stgeorgesfxbg
- Mail: P.O. Box 7127, Fredericksburg, VA 22404

Families with children: Children are welcome in worship! Parents may nurse or feed infants anywhere in the church. Free childcare services are offered during the 10 am service in our nursery (in the office hallway, see an usher/greeter for directions). A "Soft Space" is available at the front of the church for children and families to stretch out, move around or sit more comfortably. See an usher for a Children's Bulletin. We are glad you are here.

Walking Together

Pastoral Care at St. George's is a ministry of the clergy and the laity. By walking with each other through times of joy and times of sorrow, the love of Christ is revealed.

Prayer Ministers are available to pray with you during our worship services and outside of worship times on the phone. Our Prayer Group provides intercessory prayer weekly. Our One Body Response Team (OBRT) offers prayers, sends cards, and responds to other needs as able.

Lay Eucharistic Visitors (LEVs) are available to bring Holy Communion to the homebound.

Our Wednesday Noon Eucharist service in the nave includes prayers for healing and anointing.

Prayer Shawls are available upon request. These mantles of healing and comfort are made by our ministry teams.

If you need support or encouragement, please consider reaching out to our church office (540.373.4133; office@stgeorgesepiscopal.net). You may also contact clergy directly to make an appointment.

If you have a pastoral care emergency (death, serious illness, or other crisis) and need to speak with clergy, please call or text 540.361.8573 to reach clergy on call.

Land and Labor Acknowledgment

We give thanks for the land which God created as a precious gift. We honor the Indigenous peoples who long knew the land of our parish more than 10,000 years before it was established over 300 years ago, including the Patowomeck and Rappahannock Tribes who still live here. Please see our website for the full text of our land acknowledgement.

We also honor the people of African descent whose enslaved labor supported the parish for the first half of its history. Rooted in the Gospel, repentant of sin, we are nurturing faith and seeking justice, healing, and repair of relationships amid the complexity of our times.

The Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost September 6, 2026

from the red Book of Common Prayer
(BCP), Enriching Our Worship, and forms of prayer from around the world.

We invite you to prepare for worship by observing silence or taking time for private prayer. Please take a moment to silence cell phones and alarms. We are glad you are here! We welcome you to this service, whether you have been here often or if this is your first time. Please use this bulletin as your guide to participate. Please note the announcements about ways to connect and upcoming events. May this time of worship and prayer be a blessing to you.

Prelude: Ar Hyd y Nos
Y Jig Cymreig

Welsh Folk Song
Traditional Welsh

One minute of silence follows the prelude. Please rise or rise in spirit at the ringing of the bell.

Opening Poem: Outwitted
He drew a circle that shut me out—
Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout.
But Love and I had the wit to win:
We drew a circle that took him in!

Edward Markham

Opening Hymn WLP 757: "Will you come and follow me"

Mary Alexandra

Gather in God's Name

Officiant: Come to us this night, O God

All: Come to us with light.

Officiant: Speak to us this night, O God.

All: Speak to us your truth.

Officiant: Dwell with us this night, O God,

All: Dwell with us in love.

Officiant: Almighty God, who pours out on all who desire it the spirit of grace and of prayer: Deliver us, when we draw near to you, from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind, that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections we may worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Savior.
Amen.

Proclaim and Respond to the Word of God

The Reading from the Gospel

Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus said, "If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them."

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is observed after the reading

Meditation

The Rev. K. Paige Trivett, Deacon

Two minutes of silence will follow.

Music for Meditation: Dafydd Y Garreg Wen

Pray for the World and the Church

Prayers of the People (adapted from form V BCP 389)

Officiant: Let us pray to God.

Leader 1: For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader 2: For the mission of the Church, that in faithful witness it may preach the Good News with love.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader 1: For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader 2: For those in positions of public trust and those seeking election, that they may serve justice and promote the dignity and freedom of every person.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader 1: For a blessing upon all human labor and the right use of the riches of creation, that the world may be freed from poverty, disaster, famine, and greed.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader 2: For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for the relief and protection of refugees, prisoners, and all who are in danger.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader 1: For our enemies and those who wish us harm, and for all whom we have injured or offended.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader 2: For this congregation of St. George's and for clearness of mission about who we are and what you call us to do.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader 1: For all who have asked for our prayers, that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace, and health.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Leader 2: For all who have died and all who mourn. May they have rest with you in life eternal.

Officiant: God of mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Concluding Collect: Creator, we give you thanks for all you are and all you bring to us for our visit within your creation. In Jesus, you place the Gospel in the center of this sacred circle through which all of creation is related. You show us the way to live a generous and compassionate life. Give us your strength to live together with respect and commitment as we grow in your spirit, for you are God, now and forever. Amen.¹

¹ This prayer is from A Disciple's Prayer Book, a worship resource from the Indigenous Ministries of the Episcopal Church

If you like, please come forward during the music and light a candle as an embodied symbol of your prayer. The clergy is available to pray with you, or to take special prayer requests during this time.

Instrumental Music:

Mympwy Porthleinon
Ymdaith Yr Hen Gymry

Traditional Welsh
Traditional Welsh

"Dona nobis pacem, Domine"

Taizé

Translation: Grant us peace, Lord.

in unison

Eternal Spirit Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all. Loving God, in whom is heaven, the hallowing of your name echo through the universe! The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth! Your heavenly will be done by all created beings! Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

Exchange the Peace

Christ, the Good Shepherd, binds us with a bond of love that cannot be broken. My sisters and brothers, the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you.

All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace.

Prepare the Table

As we prepare to make Eucharist, the holy feast of thanksgiving and grace, we present ourselves and our gifts to God and remember that Jesus said, "Abide in my love...I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete."

It is a joy to gather together this evening, and we especially welcome anyone who is visiting or here for the first time. Please see more information in the bulletin notes and feel free to introduce yourself after the service. There are also printed instructions about receiving communion or a blessing. Praise God from whom all blessings flow. As the table is prepared, we invite you to consider a gift in support of our ministry within and beyond our congregation. Make your offering online (<http://bit.ly/stggive>), in the alms basin provided in the aisle, or by mail to the church. Please note the announcements at the rear of this bulletin. For the latest updates and messages of encouragement, check our website (StGeorgesEpiscopal.net) and subscribe to our email newsletter (<http://bit.ly/stgenews>).

A Celtic Service Communion Prayer² Please stand.

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the holy ruler of all creation.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant gives thanks to God for the work of creation and the revelation of God to God's people.

It is right to give you thanks, O Most High— Mother, Father, Source of all Creation. Through your Word and with Holy Wisdom you shaped the heavens and the earth. You formed us from the clay and breathed your Spirit into us. Through prophets and poets, you taught us your ways. When we wandered, your mercy met us. In exile, you called us home. And so, with angels and saints, with rivers that clap their hands and hills that sing for joy, we join in the eternal hymn of your glory, singing:

Sanctus: WLP 850

Jonathan Dimmock

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest, the highest.

² Source: adapted from the Order for Eucharist Form 2, Book of Common Prayer p. 404

The Celebrant now praises God for the salvation of the world through Jesus Christ our Savior.

O God, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent Jesus, your only Son, to be our Savior, fully human and fully divine. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, he was born of your servant, Mary, and lived as one of us. To those in poverty, he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Recalling now his suffering and death, and celebrating his resurrection and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

People: Accept, O God, our sacrifice of praise, this memorial of our redemption.

Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts. Let them be for us the Body and Blood of your Son.

People: And grant that we who eat this bread and drink this cup may be filled with your life and goodness.

The Celebrant then prays that all may receive the benefits of Christ's work, and the renewal of the Holy Spirit.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us to renew us, that we may receive the benefits of Christ's work in heart, mind, body, and soul.

All this we ask through our Savior Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: As Jesus taught his disciples, we now pray,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Break the Bread

Fraction Anthem: O Lamb of God

Jonathan Dimmock

[Cantor]

O Lamb of God that tak - est a - way the sins of the world, have mer - cy, have mer - cy on us.

[All]

O Lamb of God that tak - est a - way the sins of the world, have mer - cy, have mer - cy on us.

O Lamb of God that tak - est a - way the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

Celebrant: This is the table, not simply of the church, but of Christ our savior. It is made ready for those who love Christ and those who want to love more. So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is Christ who invites you. It is God's will that those who wish should meet the love of Christ here.

All are welcome to participate in Communion, either by receiving the Sacrament or receiving a blessing. Communion is the sacramental body and blood of Jesus Christ received in bread and wine blessed by the Holy Spirit.

- Proceed forward toward the communion ministers when prompted (notify an usher if you need to receive at your seat).
- To receive the bread, hold your hands out, palms up.
- To receive the wine, sip from the cup (a.k.a. chalice) or point to the cup for the bread to be dipped by the minister.
- Gluten-free? Hold your hands palms down, then take the wafer from the separate container when offered. Ask for the gluten-free cup if preferred.
- To receive a blessing (prayed by the minister), cross your arms over your chest.

Receiving just the bread or just the wine is a full and valid participation.

For more information about participation in the sacraments of Holy Communion or Holy Baptism, contact the clergy.

Music during Communion: Llawenydd Ap Tomos

Traditional Welsh

Prayer After Communion Please stand.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Savior Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

Go into the World

The Blessing

Closing Hymn WLP 771: "O God of Gentle Strength"

Carlisle

The Dismissal

Officiant: Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road and may God's blessing be upon you always.

People: Thanks be to God.

Life in Christ Preaching Series Continues

As we return to the program year, it is a good time to return to a basic question: "What does it mean to live as a disciple of Jesus?" Each week in our morning services, we will examine some qualities of "life in Christ" based on the appointed scriptures in the Lectionary.

- Aug 23: Seeking Freedom Together
- Aug 30: Listening to God's call.
- Sept 6: Loving God and our Neighbors.
- Sept 13: Forgiving abundantly.
- Sept 20: Practicing Generosity.
- Sept 27: Changing our Minds and Hearts.
- Oct 4: Living our Best Life.

The adult forum at 9 am will offer a deeper dive into these themes as well.

Newcomers Lunch – September 13

The Vestry of St. George's is happy to host a Newcomer's Luncheon in Sydnor Hall on September 13, at 11:45 am following the 10 am service. We welcome anyone new or returning to St. George's within the past year to join us for lunch and a time of fellowship. Staff and vestry will be there to introduce themselves and their roles. We will also have time to answer any questions you may have about our parish. We are excited to share this time with newcomers and look forward to building connections! Please RSVP to vestry@stgeorgesepiscopal.net

Today's Altar Arrangement:

The Altar Flowers are given in memory of R. Cameron Thompson & Bev Thompson by Bob and Pam Thompson, arranged by Flower Guild members Jane Hunsucker and Ann Tebbutt.

Youth Group Meeting – Today

Our joint youth group will be meeting today from 12 – 1:30 pm at the Campus Christian Center (1213 Dandridge Street). Lunch is provided. All youth in grades 6 -12 are invited to attend. Reminder that we will be joined by youth from Christ Lutheran and Trinity Episcopal.

Children's Choir and Chimes

We are excited to usher in our 2026-2027 choir season at St. George's! Our first rehearsal will be on Sept. 13 at 3 pm in the choir room. Children's choir and chimes will rehearse from 3 - 4:30 pm on Sunday afternoons. Email Juliann Jones (juliann.jones@stgeorgesepiscopal.net) to sign up.

Office Notes

Our office is closed on Monday, September 7 for Labor Day. If you have a pastoral emergency and need to speak with clergy, please call or text: 540.361.8573.

Concert Series – September 20

Join us for a free concert on Sunday, September 20, 2026, at 3:00 pm, featuring acclaimed jazz musicians Peter and Will Anderson performing on clarinet and saxophone, and guitarist Adam Moezinia. The concert is free with donations accepted at the door.

Sign up for Coffee Hour

We are in need of coffee hour hosts! Please see the sign up form posted in Sydnor Hall and consider hosting a Sunday!
