Welcome to St. George's!

View Our Complete Weekly Worship Schedule on our Website: StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/worship

Whether you are worshiping online or in person, we are glad you are here. We hope you will find comfort in the beauty of the worship and encouragement in your personal faith journey.

New to St. George's?
Thank you for joining us today! You can use this bulletin to follow along with the worship service. We use liturgies based in the red Book of Common Prayer. Hymns are from the blue Hymnal 1982 and green Wonder, Love, and Praise. All are located in your pew. Watch fellow worshipers for when to stand or sit, and please only do what is comfortable for you. We'd love to get to know you and help get you connected with our parish ministries, formation, and fellowship groups.

Visit StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/connect or scan the QR code and we'll be in touch. You can also fill out the Newcomer Card in your pew and drop it in the offering plate. We welcome the chance to meet you!

Thank You for Your Generous Gifts! Your financial gifts fund our ministries so we may show the Love of God to all.

This month your gifts have helped:

- Bless the PEOPLE of St. George's through providing worship and study materials, coffee and hospitality, and livestream and Zoom capacity for remote participation.
- Sustain the PLACE of St. George's through maintenance of buildings and grounds and provision of utilities and environmental controls.
- Encourage the ministry and care of all St. Georgians through the PASTORAL LEADERSHIP of our clergy and staff.

You can make a financial gift:

- In-person: place gift in collection plate in the aisle or when passed by the ushers
- Online - one-time or recurring: StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/giving or scan QR code
- Text: Send a text message with the dollar amount [e.g. $50] to 540.701.4133
- Automated bank withdrawal (contact our parish finance director, Jake DeNap, to arrange this)
- Paypal: www.paypal.com/paypalme/stgeorgesfxbg
- Mail: P.O. Box 7127, Fredericksburg, VA 22404

Families with children: Children are welcome in worship! Parents may nurse or feed infants anywhere in the church. Free childcare services are offered during the 10 am service in our nursery (in the office hallway, see an usher/greeter for directions). A "Soft Space" is available at the front of the church for children and families to stretch out, move around or sit more comfortably. See an usher for a Children's Bulletin. We are glad you are here.

Walking Together

Pastoral Care at St. George's is a ministry of the clergy and the laity. By walking with each other through times of joy and times of sorrow, the love of Christ is revealed.

Prayer Ministers are available to pray with you during our worship services and outside of worship times on the phone. Our Prayer Group provides intercessory prayer weekly. Our One Body Response Team (OBRT) offers prayers, sends cards, and responds to other needs as able.

Lay Eucharistic Visitors (LEVs) are available to bring Holy Communion to the homebound.

Our Wednesday Noon Eucharist service in the nave includes prayers for healing and anointing.

Prayer Shawls are available upon request. These mantles of healing and comfort are made by our ministry teams.

If you need support or encouragement, please consider reaching out to our church office (540.373.4133; office@stgeorgesepiscopal.net). You may also contact clergy directly to make an appointment.

If you have a pastoral care emergency (death, serious illness, or other crisis) and need to speak with clergy, please call or text 540.361.8573 to reach clergy on call.

Land and Labor Acknowledgment

We give thanks for the land which God created as a precious gift. We honor the Indigenous peoples who long knew the land of our parish more than 10,000 years before it was established over 300 years ago, including the Patawomeck and Rappahannock Tribes who still live here. Please see our website for the full text of our land acknowledgement.

We also honor the people of African descent whose enslaved labor supported the parish for the first half of its history. Rooted in the Gospel, repentant of sin, we are nurturing faith and seeking justice, healing, and repair of relationships amid the complexity of our times.

The Twenty-Fourth Sunday after Pentecost
November 8, 2026

from the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP)

We invite you to prepare for worship by observing silence or taking time for private prayer. Please take a moment to silence cell phones and alarms. We are glad you are here!

Celebrant: Blessed be God; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity BCP 323

Summary of the Law BCP 324

Kyrie BCP 324

The Word of God
Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And with thy spirit
Celebrant: Let us pray.

The Celebrant says the Collect of the Day BCP 184
O God, whose blessed Son was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant us, we beseech thee, that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that, when he shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where with thee, O Father, and thee O Holy Ghost, he liveth and reigneth ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Joshua 24:1-3a, 14-25 New Revised Standard Version
Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and summoned the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers of Israel; and they presented themselves before God. And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Long ago your ancestors-- Terah and his sons Abraham and Nahor-- lived beyond the Euphrates and served other gods. Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River and led him through all the land of Canaan and made his offspring many. "Now therefore revere the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River, and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. Now if you are unwilling to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD." Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our ancestors up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and who did those great signs in our sight. He protected us along all the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed; and the LORD drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God." But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the LORD; for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins. If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after having done you good." And the people said to Joshua, "No, we will serve the LORD!" Then Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses." He said, "Then put away the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel." The people said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and him we will obey." So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made statutes and ordinances for them at Shechem.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 78:1-7 BCP 627

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 New Revised Standard Version

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew 25:1-13[1]
People: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

New Revised Standard Version

Jesus said, "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them; but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a shout, `Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said to the wise, `Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise replied, `No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, `Lord, lord, open to us.' But he replied, `Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

First Nations Version

When that time comes, the ones who are walking Creator's good road from above will be like ten young, unmarried women who took their ceremonial torches and went out to welcome the groom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The wise women took an extra clay pot of oil along for their torches, but the foolish ones did not bother to bring any. The groom did not come when expected, and they all fell asleep as they waited. Then suddenly, in the dark of the night, someone cried out, "Look! The groom is coming, let us go welcome him!" All the women woke up to prepare their torches, but the oil in the torches had run out. The foolish ones said to the wise, "Give us some of your oil so our torches will not go out." The wise ones answered back, "There is not enough for all of us. Hurry, go to the village and trade for some more." They hurried away to get more oil. But while they were gone, the groom came and all the guests went into the lodge for the wedding feast, and the gate was closed. A while later the other women came to the gate and said to the gatekeeper, "Honored one, O honored one, open the door and let us come in." But he said to them, "I truly do not even know who you are - why should I let you in?" Creator Sets Free (Jesus) finished the tory with these words of wisdom. "Here is what I am saying to you: be prepared like the wise women in this story and always be ready, for you do not know the time of day or night that the True Human Being will appear."

Deacon or Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

1 As part of Native American Heritage Month (November), we are including the Gospel Reading from the First Nations Version: An Indigenous Translation of the New Testament (published 2021).

Prayers of the People
In this season of giving thanks for God's abundant blessings and for the People, Place, and Pastoral Leadership of St. George's, we offer our prayers to the Holy One from whom all blessings flow.

Lector: For the Universal Church gathered in the churches throughout the world: for our Diocese and for the people, place, pastoral leadership, and ministries of St. George's.

People: Grant us wisdom and grace as your people in this place, Holy One, to work, pray, and give for the coming of your heavenly reign of love.

Lector: For this nation and all in authority: for all nations and leaders and those seeking election, for cooperation across borders, an end to wars, and for just governance.

People: Grant us wisdom and grace, Holy One, to love our neighbors, work for justice and peace, and fulfill our civic duties with courage and humility.

Lector: For the welfare of the world: for the flourishing of all creatures, for the curbing of human greed, and for the healing of the whole creation.

People: Grant us wisdom and grace, Holy One, to seek the peace of the planet that sustains our life.

Lector: For our annual generosity campaign: for the resources we need to do the work we are called to do through Christ, for generous hearts that share abundantly.

People: Grant us wisdom and grace, Holy One, to overcome scarcity through abundance, to confront anxiety through gratitude, and to make every offering a joyful response to you.

Lector: For those who suffer and those in any trouble: we pray for all those on our hearts today, silently or aloud. (the leader pauses as prayers are offered)

Lector: Hear your people in this place;

People: Grant us wisdom and grace, Holy One, to continue our prayers for all in need.

Lector: For the departed: for all who have died and all who mourn, for all the saints who inspire us to trust in the dying and rising of Christ.

People: Grant us wisdom and grace, Holy One, to be a resurrection people, in this place, with our pastors and leaders, seeking life in Christ.

Celebrant: Accept the prayers of your people, O Holy One, in and from this holy place. Bless and guide all of us who offer pastoral leadership, that the ministries of St. George's may always be a prayerful offering, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Confession BCP 330

A special "peace" candle is lit and this prayer is offered
Almighty God, kindle, we pray, in every heart the true love of peace, and guide with your wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth, that in tranquility your dominion may increase until the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Peace
Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And with thy spirit.
All are now invited to exchange a sign of peace.

Offertory and Announcements
As we prepare to receive the offering of Christ in the sacrament, we make our offerings in gratitude for God's abundant grace. Please see the instructions later in the bulletin about participating in Communion or receiving a blessing, and the invitation to pray with the personal prayer minister. Know that you are most welcome. See instructions in the front of this bulletin about ways to make your monetary offering. Thank you for sharing your gifts in commitment to God and to our ministry together!

Invitation to Communion
The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.
All are welcome to participate in Communion, either by receiving the Sacrament or receiving a blessing. Communion is the sacramental body and blood of Jesus Christ received in bread and wine blessed by the Holy Spirit.

- Proceed forward toward the communion ministers when prompted (notify an usher if you need to receive at your seat).
- To receive the bread, hold your hands out, palms up.
- To receive the wine, sip from the cup (a.k.a. chalice) or point to the cup for the bread to be dipped by the minister.
- Gluten-free? Hold your hands palms down, then take the wafer from the separate container when offered. Ask for the gluten-free cup if preferred.
- To receive a blessing (prayed by the minister), cross your arms over your chest.

Receiving just the bread or just the wine is a full and valid participation.
For more information about participation in the sacraments of Holy Communion or Holy Baptism, contact the clergy.

Formation for All Ages at 9 am:

View staff directory on our website:
StGeorgesEpiscopal.net/staff
Or call the church office: 540.373.4133

One way we explore our spirituality is through learning - be it presentations, reading, or even talking with one another during coffee hour.

Nursery :
Child care is available for little ones ages 0 - 4 years old during the 9 am formation hour and the 10 am worship service. Please see an usher for directions to the nursery.

Children

- Grades PreK - 2: Godly Play Montessori-based program of stories, wondering, and expressive art or play. Located in the Godly Play room of the Preschool floor.
- Grades 3 - 5: SPLASH (Spirit, Play, Love All Spoken Here) using a curriculum designed by the Episcopal Church. Located in the Library in Sydnor Hall.

Youth

- Grades 6 - 8: The Dragon's Den Join us for some interesting conversation of topics related to our faith, with art as our main reflection tool. Located on the Youth Floor.
- Grades 9 - 12: Youth Formation Youth-led discussions on how Scripture, theology, worship, popular culture, and personal experience all intersect in our high school years. Located in Faulkner Hall.
- Youth Group: For grades 6-12, meets twice a month from 12 pm - 1:30 pm at the Campus Christian Center (1213 Dandridge St)

Adults:
Coffee and Fellowship in Sydnor Hall

- Adult Forum: Q and A with the Rector...continued.
  We had a lively conversation with all our clergy on October 25 and ran out of time. Let's continue talking, and our Rector will have some questions for participants as well. Bring any and all questions or reflections to share. Consider how you would answer: "Where are you seeing God at work in our community and at St. George's?" "What needs more (or less) attention in our parish family?"

Acolyte Training – Today at 11:30 am
Rev. Paige is offering a training in the nave for new and returning acolytes (crucifers, torch bearers, and gospel bearers) following today's 10 am service. The training is for folks learning the roles for the first time and for current acolytes who would like a refresher. 2nd-5th graders are invited to serve as gospel bearers, middle schoolers are invited to serve as torch bearers, and high schoolers and adults are invited to serve as crucifers. No need to register, just show up to the training!

Godly Play Training - Nov. 21
St. George's will hold a Godly Play training session on Saturday, November 21 from 9 am - 12 pm in our Godly Play classroom located on the lower level with the preschool. The Rev. Dr. Rosemary Beales will lead a condensed training session for all people interested in learning more about Godly Play and Christian education. All are welcome. Scan the QR code to register.

Today's Altar Arrangement:
The Altar Flowers are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of her mother, Rebekah Lee Sweet, and her grandmother, Rachael Trimble Braxton by Becky-Lee Sweet O'Connor, arranged by Flower Guild members JoAnne Rose, Jane Hunsucker, Ann Tebbutt.

Annual Generosity Campaign
We continue our season to invite prayerful consideration of financial giving to St. George's in 2027, in gratitude to God and in support of the People, Place, and Pastoral Leadership that make all our ministries possible. Estimate of giving (pledge) card packets were mailed this past week. Vestry members are calling to ask for your prayers. Information, testimonial videos, and online pledge forms are also available on our website. We ask every household to share an estimate by November 15, regardless of amount (or if you are unable to give). Your participation in the campaign is participation in the work we are called to do together as the Body of Christ.

Children and Youth Service - Nov. 15
Join us for another wonderful Children and Youth led service on Sunday, November 15 at 10 am. Our children and youth will take active roles leading the service, as ushers, greeters, and lectors! There will be a child-focused homily by Pastor Joe for all ages.
The St. George's Children's Choir and Chimes will also play. It is sure to be a wonderful opportunity to share the talents of our younger parishioners. Any and all children and youth are invited to participate. Contact Rev. Paige (paige.trivett@stgeorgesepiscopal.net) for more info.
